Its Churchmanship is that of the Prayer Book, as interpreted by the use of the American Church.

THE SOUTHERN CHURCHMAN will be glad to receive and publish news of Church work from any part of the country.

The Young Churchman

A year's trial of the plan of devoting the first issue

A series of missionary lessons, prepared by the Rev. WILLIAM E. GARDNER, General Secretary of the General Board of Religious Education, is among the features of the MISSIONARY MAGAZINE, and a new series, entitled

The other weekly issues of THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN contain stories, illustrations, and religious reading for the young people and the family.

ON THE FARM

LOOK Spot, look! there comes your nice mamma. She's just coming in the gate. Your mamma says "Moo, moo, doesn't she?"
 Paul put his little arms around Spot's neck and laid his little face close boy was driving them but they did not hurry. She wondered if she would ever be a big fat cow and go to the pasture every morning.

 Louis patted Spot's broad back. Both the boys loved their gentle friend. Spot to her merry ear as he whispored. "Spot, let's run fast and I'll give your mamma, as much as the other."

 Spot didn't want to run fast. She had a shady place under a tree and animals were their playmates. Some times it seemed as if they understood what the animals said. This often happens when children are kind to animals and truly love them. All the children who live on a farm know about it.

From the Archbishop and Primate of Australia.

"The writer has adopted an exhaustive method in his treatment of the subject, and the book is a valuable repertory of all that is pertinent in argument and information about the question. I may find myself differing now and then from particular assertions of opinion, but admire and appreciate Dr. Lowndes' successful presentation of the whole argument, in his remarkable 'Vindication.'"

From the Bishop of Aberdeen and Orkney.

"You have conferred a very great boon on the whole Church. The work is of inestimable value to the whole Church throughout the world."

From the Rt. Rev. F. D. HUNTINGTON, D.D., Bishop of Central

Dr. Lowndes has conferred a great boon upon the Anglican Communion."

From the Bishop of Southern Florida.

"I have been able to enjoy the great pleasure of reading and indeed of going over for the second time the admirable work of the Rev. Dr. Lowndes, 'Vindica-monumental work, if not an epoch-making book, at the very least an epoch-marking production."

VINDICATION OF

From Bishop Mitchinson, Master of Pembroke.

"I took the opportunity of my month's residence at Gloucester this Christmas to study Dr. Lowndes' 'Vindication of Anglican Orders' and am much impressed by its thoroughness, its lucidity, its excellent arrangement, and its general completeness. It will, unless I am deceived in my judgment, be a work of permanent value to the Church, and may fairly be expected to take its place as a standard work in Anglican Apologetics."

From the Bishop of Goulburn.

"The method adopted of examining the Papal Bull, sentence by sentence, gives the work its particular form, and no doubt the end which the author had in view is by this means most successfully carried out—that end being the complete exposure of the historical misstatements and the theological fallacies of that pretentious document.

"The whole Anglican Communion, therefore, has reason to thank God for the accumulated learning and marked ability which has so ably vindicated the historical and spiritual validity of its Sacred Orders; and I earnestly pray that the work as a whole may be widely studied, and may serve more and more, as time goes on for the confirmation of faith, the settlement of doubts, and the conviction of gainsayers."

From the Bishop of Newcastle, New South Wales.

"The work is well worthy of its character as a 'Vindication.' Its historical and liturgical matter gives a solid basis and cannot be shaken. The tone is scholarly and calm, and the whole work will stand as standard literature on the subject it discusses."

From Bishop Nicolai, Chief of the Russian Ecclesiastical Mission in Japan.

"After perusing the work, I found it the best on the subject among the others, and fully appreciate the weight of all arguments in it against the pretensions of the Roman Church."

From the Bishop of Gibraltar.

"It will be recognized as the Standard Authority on the subject with which it deals."

EDWIN S. GORHAM, Publisher

ANGLICAN ORDERS

PRECEDING PAGES

From the Bishop of Pittsburgh.

"As an American, one can only render thanks to God that so much learning and skill has been manifested by priests on this side of the water in the production of an argument which will surely command the attention and elicit the commendation of Churchmen the world over."

From the Bishop of Rochester.

"It was a happy thought on the part of American Churchmen to draw us all together in the matter, and certainly we of the older Church gratefully welcome such a reinforcement from the younger."

From the Bishop of Bangor.

"A clear presentation of the Anglican position in regard to Holy Orders. It will take its place as a standard book in showing the hollowness of Roman claims and pretensions, and the rightful claims of our Church to be considered a branch of the Catholic Church of Christ."

From the Bishop of Marquette.

"I know of no work which contains an equally rich treasure of information on the whole subject of Holy Orders, as Dr. Lowndes' masterly 'Vindication of Anglican Orders.'"

From the Bishop of Derry and Raphoe.

"Learned, comprehensive, and reasonable. A treasury of information."

From the Bishop of Ohio.

"Its spirit is firm but temperate, in view of the aggravations that at times must excite the defender of his Orders. Its scholarship is of course unquestioned. Its conclusions are so plain and so definite and so admirably put, that, 'the wayfaring man, though a fool, need not err' in grasping them."

From the Bishop of Wellington.

"Of great value, and the greater because it is written independently, and confirms in a remarkable degree the conclusions at which other writers have arrived, besides presenting new facts of great importance."

THE SELF-REVELATION OF OUR LORD

THE APOSTLES' CREED—A BOOK OF MEDITATIONS

535 pp. $2.00 net.

Mr. Gorham takes great pleasure in offering to the religious public this splendid series of Meditations on the Articles of our Christian Belief. Dr. Barry's latest production is most unusual, in being not only a great book but also a most fascinating one. Like the Creed itself, it may be read and understood by the young Christian, while—at the same time—it contains rich and strong spiritual food for the thoughts of the most mature saints of God.

The Rev. ARTHUR W. JENKS, D.D., Professor of Church History in the General Theological Seminary, says of this work:

"Dr. Barry's 'Meditations on the Apostles' Creed seems to be an extraordinary successful and practical correlation of Creed with conduct, the kind of treatment of the subject calculated to help people disturbed by attacks upon the Catholic Faith at the present time, and to develop the vigorous, manly, positive type of Christian character."

This book is especially recommended for daily readings. It can be used, with effect, at Noonday Services or at Vespers, when the Rector desires to give a series of spiritual readings, rather than make an address.

THE CHRISTIAN'S DAY

A Book of Meditations by the same author. 257 pp. $1.50.

"Dr. Barry is always practical. Herein he covers the range of normal daily experience. He gives a wealth of rich thought on Prayer, Meditation, and the like."—London Church Times.

Like the former work, this book is recommended for spiritual reading in the home and at Daily Lenten Services in the Church.

Young, I am glad to give it my hearty approval and to commend it to the Clergy of the Diocese for use in the instruction of their candidates in the truths of our holy religion."—Arthur L. Williams, Bishop of Nebraska.

"I have carefully examined your book of 'Confirmation Instructions,' and shall recommend it to my clergy. I think it such a book as would not only be of great help prior to confirmation, but one which could be very profitably placed in the hands of many who have received that sacrament."—Edward Farcett, Bishop of Quincy.

THE CHILDREN'S CHALLENGE TO THE CHURCH

A Study in Religious Nurture for Rectors and Teachers. By the Rev. WILLIAM E. GARDNER, General Secretary of the General Board of Religious Education. Cloth, 75 cts. Postpaid 85 cts. Ready September 15th.

This is a notable volume, the first from the pen of the General Secretary since he assumed the duties of that office. "There are two parts to this book," says the Preface. "The former part is a challenge to the clergy and Sunday School teachers who, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, have the future of the Church in their hands. The Christian Nurture Course, which forms the second part, is not another system of lessons. It . . . seeks to show methods by which the Standard Curriculum may be applied. . . . It is the accumulated results of the experiments, discussions, and correspondence of many rectors, who, years ago, became dissatisfied with the conception of the Sunday School as a place where lessons only are taught."

HANDBOOK FOR PRIMARY TEACHERS IN CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOLS

By ANNA F. MURRAY. With Foreword by CHARLES SMITH LEWIS, Dean of All Saints' Cathedral. Indianapolis, Educational Editor of The Living Church. Cloth, 75 cts. Postpaid 82 cts.

"This book," writes Dean Lewis in his Foreword, "is the outcome of a number of years' training and experience, both in secular schools and in the Sunday school of St. Mark's Church, Evanston, in the diocese of Chicago, where Miss Murray's work has been most successful. The lessons have all been tested there, and it has been my privilege to test the course in the Cathedral in Indianapolis. I can speak with confidence of it, therefore, from a practical testing, and can most heartily commend it. It is particularly welcome as, at this time, there is no American book that covers just this ground. Kindergarten and primary work are so intimately interwoven in the Sunday school that we need to-day just such a well wrought-out handbook for the whole department."

THE ELEMENTS OF CHILD STUDY AND RELIGIOUS PEDAGOGY

Officially Recommended by the Teacher-Training Committee of the General Board of Religious Education. In simple and practical form. Fully illustrated. By the Rev. WM. WALTER SMITH, M.A., M.D. With foreword by the Rev. ROBERT P. KREITLER. xiv+278 pages. Cloth, 90 cts. Postage 10 cts.

"Dr. Smith has had large experience in Sunday School work, and so his book will doubtless be of real help to many of his co-laborers; and certainly it is help in a field where, just now, help is most sorely needed."—Southern Churchman.

"This book will be of value to many Sunday school teachers."—Religious Education.

"The volume will serve as a practical compendium of knowledge on the subjects covered."—The Living Church.

MANUAL OF INSTRUCTIONS IN THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION

By the Rev. WILLIAM FRANCIS SHERO, A.M., Ph.D., Warden and Headmaster of Racine College. Paper, 15 ets. Postpaid 18 ets.

A series of instructions, in narrative form, on Christian Faith, Duty, and Privileges, based on the Church Catechism, and "In the parish in which these instructions were first used," writes the author, "it is the custom for the Sunday school to begin with the lesson study, during which time the children who are in the Catechetical grade go over the appointed lesson with the teachers. Then the entire school goes into the church for their service and the Catechising. That has proved a good way to carry out the wise requirement of the Church, and has been very interesting and beneficial not only to the children but to older persons as well."

THE CATECHISM WITH BLACKBOARD AND CHART

A complete Course of Lessons and Instructions after the Method of S. Sulpice on the Church Catechism. By the Rev. S. N. SEDGWICK, M.A., Rector of Bishopstoke, Hants. With outline drawings for diagrams and charts. [Mowbray.] Cloth, $1.40. Postpaid $1.50.

This is the newest book for use in connection with the Sulpician Method, which is so widely and successfully used in English Sunday schools. It is complete for the use of the catechist in 85 lessons, with directions and many suggestions for its use, in the Preface.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

By Rev. Wm. WALTER SMITH, M.D. A comprehensive Text Book. Fully illustrated with many original drawings. Cloth, 8vo., $2.00; by mail $2.20.

"The preparation of this new text book is meant to gather the results of study from the whole field and to present them in a single volume for the use of leaders of teacher-training classes and for other workers in the same lines. Mr. Smith's book considers first the scope and aim of religious instruction—the why of teaching; the teacher, his character and training—the who of teaching; the child and child study—the whom of teaching; the lesson and its preparation—the wherewithal of teaching; the curriculum—the what of teaching; the class—the how of teaching; the school—the where of teaching; and the history of religious education—the source of teaching. Thus the entire ground of the subject is gone over."—Book News Monthly.

The Gospel in the Church.

By the REV. WALKER GWYNNE, D.D.

Edited by the BISHOP OF ALBANY.

The Gospel in the Church is a complete manual of instruction in the Christian Faith and Life, embodying all the best features of the new pedagogy, together with the old unchanging principles of the Historic Church. The book, in four grades, is meant for children from 6 to 14.

The lessons are dated for the Sundays of the Christian Year, each Part I. beginning with First Sunday in Advent, each Part II. with First Sunday after Trinity; but it is not difficult to adapt them to courses beginning at other dates.

Secular as well as Religious, should have strong and accurate works relating to the difficult subject of English History, treating the Church of England fairly and honestly.

Some of those works—each one of which should be in every School Library and every Public Library are—

The Historians and the English Reformation

By the Rev. JOHN S. LITTELL, D.D., 8vo, over 300 pages, $2.50; by mail $2.68.

"The present volume effectively disposes of the claim as to Henry VIII. by documents which admit of no reasonable gainsaying. Its record also of the error which abounds in writers on both sides of the question is well-nigh encyclopædic, a pretty complete dictionary of the misinformation current on this subject."—The Outlook.

"A valuable study. . . . The best verdict we can pass upon it is that it has convinced the writer of this review of the justice of the Anglican claim to antiquity and continuity."—Springfield Republican.

"The book will prove a useful guide to the literature (in English) on the Reformation."—London Times.

A History of Great Britain

From the Coming of the Angles to the Year 1870. By E. M. WILMOT-BUXTON, Author of "Makers of Europe," etc. Cloth, $1.25; by mail $1.35.

"In every way satisfactory. It treats of history by periods and topics—not by reigns—and it does it admirably. One only needs to compare it in its ecclesiastical references to the American text-books, to see how totally different is the perspective. . . . And Mr. Buxton's treatment of such a matter as the American Revolution could not be improved upon, even by our own writers."—The Living Church.

The Prayer Book Reason Why

A Book of Questions and Answers on the Doctrines, Usages, and History of the Church, as suggested by the Liturgy. For Parochial and Sunday School Uses. By the Rev. NELSON R. BOSS, M.A. 16mo, paper covers, 20 cents net; boards, 30 cents. Postage 3 cents. Cloth edition, 50 cents; by mail 55 cents.

The design of this book is threefold: (1) To familiarize the reader with the Doctrines, History, and Ritual of the Church, as they are suggested by the Offices. (2) To bring out clearly and concisely those principles of Historic Christianity which distinguish the Episcopal Church from all other religious bodies. (3) To furnish clear and concise answers to the popular objections so commonly raised against the Church by those not familiar with her ways.

The weakness of the Church to-day does not lie in any defect of hers, but in the lack of clear and definite information respecting her on the part of Church people themselves. The design of the author in this little volume has been (1) to furnish just this definite information needed, in the briefest possible space; and (2) to stimulate the reader to an intelligent study of the Church's character and teaching as set forth in the Prayer Book, and as verified by Scripture. What better service can the clergy do for the Church or for those seeking after truth, than to place a book like this in the hands of every layman and every Sunday School teacher in the land, requiring them to master its contents and thus be not only thoroughly grounded in the faith themselves, but also able to instruct others?

"A book which should be of great assistance to teachers and others, and to those preparing for Confirmation."—The Churchman.

"Mr. Boss has made a distinct success in carrying out the design."—The Living Church.

Ninety Questions for Confirmation Classes

By the Rev. NELSON R. BOSS, M.A. Price 10 cents; by mail 11 cents.

This booklet is (1) to secure better results in preparing candidates for Confirmation, and (2) to save the clergy a vast amount of time and labor. Every one who has tried the method and material here provided pronounces it unexcelled.

The late Bishop Paret of Maryland wrote:

"I have carefully read the little book, Ninety Questions, and I like it very much indeed. I think it will be exceedingly useful and helpful in preparing classes for Confirmation. It seems to me sound, strong, and Churchly."

The late Bishop Seymour of Springfield wrote:

"I have examined the book, Ninety Questions, with more than usual care, and I give it my hearty commendation as a most valuable help in the instruction of the young. I sincerely trust that it (as well as the Prayer Book Reason Why) may be widely used throughout the limits of the Church."

Bishop Burgess of Long Island says:

"The Ninety Questions for Confirmation Classes I heartily commend as useful to teachers and pastors alike. In these busy days rectors do not always have the time to prepare lessons of their own, but even those who can do so would find this a most valuable little book, indispensable in its suggestions."

Letters to Laymen

By CHARLES PALMEERSTON ANDERSON, Bishop of Chicago. Cloth, 75 cts. Postpaid 80 cts.

This is an exceedingly practical volume for lay people. It consists of "Letters" to Church Wardens, Vestrymen (2), Finance Committees of Missions, Treasurers, Choirmasters (2), Sunday School Teachers (2), Sponsors, and Laymen (2). Each of these is replete with good sense and comprise the sort of instruction upon the duties of the several classes of laymen that is urgently needed.

Human Questions and Divine Answers

Short Sermons Expressly Written for Lay Readers in the American Church. By GERSHOM MOTT WILLIAMS, Bishop of Marquette. Cloth, 300 pages, $1.25. Postpaid $1.33.

The sermons of the great preachers of the Church do not readily lend themselves to repetition by other readers to new hearers, and the sermons of English writers do not meet American conditions. The Bishop of Marquette, who is obliged to use the services of lay readers on a considerable scale, and who knows how to utilize such services to the best advantage, wisely came to the conclusion that only sermons written especially for the purpose would fill the need. Being then removed from active work for several months by illness and an automobile accident, he spent the time that others similarly situated fritter away, by writing sermons—for others to preach. This volume is the result, and it is excellent for the purpose.

Spiritual Instructions

By the Rt. Rev. A. C. A. HALL, D.D., Bishop of Vermont. Paper, 84 pages, 40 cts. Postpaid 43 cts.

This consists of "Instructions" on Self-Discipline, Prayer, The Presence of God, Self-Examination, Reading the Bible, Holy Communion. "Being able now to go about but little," writes the author, "I am the more glad to circulate in print instruction that may be helpful."

Hymnal Revision

The Report of a Special Committee of the Diocese of Michigan. 8vo, paper, 80 pages, 50 cts. Postpaid 53 cts.

A careful consideration of the need of Hymnal Revision, with text of sixty-five hymns proposed for addition to the Hymnal.

Howe School Manual

THE COUNTRY PARSON: HIS WORK AND INFLUENCE

By the Rev. F. J. HAMMOND. Cloth, 60 cts. Postpaid 65 cts.

"Mr. Hammond's thesis is: The Country Parson has unusual opportunities for leadership and work; and the best men are needed for the country parishes. . . . The author's ideas concerning the daily services, ritual, the care of the church building, are exceedingly sensible and helpful, and, put in practice generally, would result in a higher religious standard for both priest and people."—The Living Church.

OUR FATHER

By Rev. J. L. SMITH-DAMPIER. Cloth, 60 cts. Postpaid 65 cts.

"A series of devotional meditations on the Lord's Prayer. . . . The meditations are practical and simple."—The Living Church.

THE INTERIOR LIFE, AND OTHER ADDRESSES

By the Rev. GEORGE CONGREVE, S.S.J.E. Cloth, $2.00. Postpaid $2.10.

"The initial address which gives the title to this book, treats of the interior life of the Christian, in contradistinction to the merely external practice of religion. . . . The other addresses in the book cover a wide range of subjects. Some of them are instructions and meditations given to Sisterhoods; there is an address to the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament. . . . They are all characterized by the same restraint and avoidance of mere rhetoric."—The Living Church.

CREATIVE REVELATION

Four Lectures on the Miraculous Christ. By the Rev. J. G. SIMPSON, D.D. Cloth, 80 cts. Postpaid 85 cts.

Recommended by Professor F. J. Hall as "An excellent contribution to apologetical theology. . . . The book is a small one, suited to slender purses, and much more important than its size suggests."

THE STORY OF ST. ALBAN'S, HOLBORN

By GEORGE W. E. RUSSELL. Cloth, $1.50. Postpaid $1.65.

"We have not space to go into the story Mr. Russell has told remarkably well, infinitely better than he did Bishop King's life. It is the history of a church planted in one of the worst of London's slums by a large-hearted layman. It was one of the first to reduce to practice the new departure in the Oxford movement, that doctrinal teaching should be expressed in terms of ritual attractiveness and ordered beauty. . . . The persecution seems almost incredible in these much saner days, for often on both sides the fight raged the most fiercely over what seems to us the infinitely little. The lawlessness of the ritualists has always been put in the strongest light, while the equal lawlessness of fervid Bishops fluttered into tyranny by way of vindicating their Protestantism is lauded to the skies."—The Pacific Churchman.

THE CREED AND REAL LIFE

By the Hon. and Rev. JAMES G. ADDERLEY. With introduction by the Bishop of Lincoln. Cloth, $1.00. Postpaid $1.10.

"It has been stimulating to read this little book. Its pages bristle with ideas. . . . From the first page the book forces one to think. . . . The book is at once a plea for dogma and a protest against what is commonly thought to be the dogmatic spirit—the tone and temper of mind which makes doctrine a mere shibboleth, erams it down men's throats, and insists upon it with little or no effort to ground it in human experience or to show its necessity and energizing power. . . . And so the reading of this little book (it numbers only 134 pages) has been a delight."—The Living Church.

THE HOLY TRINITY AND DAILY LIFE

By Rev. W. C. E. NEWBOLT, Canon and Chancellor of St. Paul's. Cloth, 60 cts. Postpaid 65 cts.

"This little book contains four sermons by Canon Newbolt, on practical aspects of the Trinitarian faith. . . . Right belief, rightly held, leads to right living. The creed must not be accepted as a mere shibboleth with which to apply tests of orthodoxy. . . . In his hands, the doctrine of the Trinity becomes not 'an abstract theological puzzle' but a great vision of divine things which meets our life at every point."—The Living Church.

The Clergy and Social Service

By the Very Rev. W. MOORE EDE, D.D.

Dean of Worcester, England

Cloth, 90 cents; by mail 96 cents

A volume of lectures delivered to theological students at Cambridge, England, during Lent, in preparation for one phase of their ministry. "They differ," says the author in his Preface, "somewhat from the lectures delivered by others who have lectured on Pastoral Theology at Cambridge in the extent to which they emphasize the opportunities of social service which are open to the clergy, and the importance of utilizing them."

"There is no other book which covers the ground quite so effectually from the Church point of view. There are any number of volumes discussing the social problem but practically all of them are from the Protestant point of view and speak of the Church largely as a voluntary organization, the policy of which can be easily molded to suit any condition; whereas Dean Ede discusses the questions with a keen sympathy for modern conditions but with a full realization of the historic character of the Church and its position. While nominally a Broad Churchman, the Dean is a sound Churchman and he always writes, perhaps sometimes unconsciously but none the less surely, from the Catholic point of view."—From a personal letter by CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF.

A BAPTISMAL SOUVENIR

A Prayer Book, 48mo size, bound in white leather, with gold cross at top and a "Name Panel" below, whereon the child's (or person's) name can be stamped in gold. The book contains also a Baptismal certificate ready to be filled out by the officiating minister, with blanks for names of the God-parents also. This is a pretty and a unique souvenir for one of the God-parents to present at the time of baptism, when the mother will surely preserve it carefully for the child till he come to "years of discretion." This style of Prayer Book has not been obtainable heretofore, but our experience proves to us its desirability. The book is No. 29 on our Prayer Book List and sells for $1.60, including marking and postage.

Editorial

AT LENGTH the communicant roll of the American Church has reached and somewhat exceeded the mark of one million. Its approaches have been slow, the average annual gain of two per cent. being little varied from year to year. This year the actual gain, a fraction under that percentage, is less than usual, reaching only 18,196 as compared with 22,924 last year, and more than 26,000 in 1908. More and more the attention of the Church should be concentrated upon the grave evil of the loss of communicants through "drift." Parish after parish drops these in large blocks at the beginning of a new rectorship, and frequently at other intervals. Never are the year's statistics closed without the enumeration of many dioceses in which those wholesale removals have cost the entire diocese an apparent decrease in its numerical standing.

The loss is a real one, and the condition must be met. Our confirmations continue to increase in reasonably satisfactory degree. The increase was less this year than last, but greater than it was two years ago. The difficulty is not that candidates are not presented for confirmation, but that those already confirmed cease to remain communicants in numbers really large in the aggregate. At the last General Convention the House of Deputies attempted to deal with the matter by throwing upon the rector of a parish the onus of following communicants removing from the parish by sending a "letter of advice," as distinguished from a formal letter of transfer, to the rector of the parish into which they were removing, or to the Bishop of the diocese if the parish could not be determined. It is obvious that this would meet only a part of the difficulty, for very many more are lost, particularly from our larger parishes, by simple disappearance and could not be traced. In spite of that, however, very many could be traced, and though the House of Bishops failed to appreciate the value of the suggestion and vetoed the measure, evidently through a misconception of what was involved in it, yet the duty of the rector to use every means within his power to follow up removing communicants will hardly be contested. These losses are, for the most part, not to other religious bodies, but to all profession of religion. The Church is adding annually in large degree her need to the "unchurched."

In detail this condition has resulted in a net decrease in communicants during the past year in eighteen dioceses, four domestic missionary districts, two foreign districts, and the European Churches. Disregarding the three latter as not within the scope of this present inquiry, the total net losses shown in this way in home dioceses and jurisdictions aggregate something more than 7,200. This of course is a very small proportion however of the actual loss. It means that divided among eighteen dioceses and four missionary districts there are this year 7,200 fewer communicants than there were last year, but every diocese suffers these losses through pruning of parish lists, which means disappearance of communicants without transfer on a large scale. The number lost to the Church year by year in this manner is probably at least 25,000, perhaps more. Surely this volume of annual losses over and above the deaths and transfers from parish to parish is of sufficiently appalling volume to demand the most careful study on the part of thinking Churchmen. These are not the people who are retained on parish rolls though seldom or never making their communions, of whom there are a seriously large proportion included in our statistics, but rather those who have finally been dropped, as no longer known to the parish authorities who last had cognizance of them, and who have drifted entirely from the Church.

WHERE A DECREASE in communicants is reported from any of the dioceses, we have, as usual, made an attempt to discover its cause. In most cases the considerations already advanced sufficiently account for the fact, though there are particulars that may be added.

In DELAWARE, where there is a decrease of 77, it is explained that the number of confirmations last year was about 40 short of the average, and that owing to vacancies, in several parishes no classes were presented during the year. The population of the diocese is practically stationary, the increase in Wilmington being offset by decrease down the state. A like condition is found in EASTON, where the decrease is 104. Eleven parishes were vacant during the greater part of the year.

IOWA presents a difficult condition. For the fifth consecutive year there is a decrease, a thing that has been paralleled in no other diocese. The roll of communicants has fallen from 7,841 in 1908 to 6,922 in 1913, or within five years a loss of nearly 12 per cent. The explanation is that the population of the state is itself decreasing, and the population of English descent decreases still more. Bishop Morrison states that during the fourteen years of his episcopate he has confirmed over 6,000 persons, being nearly as many as the entire communicant roll of the diocese at the present time, yet they are constantly removing from the diocese, and the losses exceed the gains. Other religious bodies in the state are facing the same condition. The Bishop however adds this serious note: "There is one general consideration, however, which may be worthy of note. Among the people who are connected with the Church in this part of the country the families are very small. Many of the younger married people have no children at all. At many places it seems almost impossible to maintain a Sunday school because there are no children. Our Confirmation classes have very largely been made up of persons born and bred in the denominations. It is our weakness undoubtedly that in our families there are not many children growing up under the influence of the Church and its traditions. Possibly this condition prevails elsewhere; it is certainly serious in Iowa." Yes, and it is a nation-wide condition as well.

MICHIGAN reports the most serious loss of the year among the larger dioceses, aggregating 1,703, being 8 per cent. of the communicant list. We have no really satisfactory explanation to make, though revision of lists is evidently a large factor. So it is also in MICHIGAN CITY and MILWAUKEE, where the decrease is smaller. NEW JERSEY and NEW YORK each suffer a loss of one per cent., and PITTSBURGH of 4 per cent. for like causes.

Both QUINCY and SPRINGFIELD report losses, accounted for in part by the general explanation of "revision of lists," but also by the continual trend from these rural dioceses in the Middle West to the cities and the farther West, draining them, as in Iowa, from their best blood year by year. SOUTHERN VIRGINIA has a loss of one per cent., and WASHINGTON a loss of 5 per cent., part of which at least is said to be accounted for by some unintentional inflation of the number a year ago. The loss of 1,029 reported this year largely offsets a gain of 1,398 reported last year. WESTERN MICHIGAN shows a loss of one per cent., cut off from the lists of the larger parishes within the diocese, while the largest ratio of losses is in WEST TEXAS, where the proportion is 11 per cent., and in WEST MISSOURI, 15 per cent. In the latter it is stated that a number of dead missions have been closed up and statistics have generally been revised. There are also losses recorded in NEVADA, OKLAHOMA, SALINA, and WESTERN COLORADO, the population of all of which is of a fluctuating character, as is invariably the case in newer countries. The foreign mission fields show generally a very satisfactory gain.

These explanations, one need hardly add, are but variations of the general conditions which we have stated at the outset.

THE YEAR'S GAINS throughout are small. The clergy have increased by 37, as against 72 in 1912 and 63 in 1911 but only 27 in 1910. The normal increase in parishes and missions invariably exceeds that of clergy. In the last ten years the net gain in clergy has been less than 500, while that in parishes and missions has been more than double that. In 1913 there was one clergyman to every 175 communicants; in 1903 one to every 150. Both these include the considerable number of retired and other non-parochial clergy—professors, teachers, chaplains, etc.—and thus the ratio of communicants to clergy in pastoral work is much greater than this. But even here it is easy to misconstrue the facts. The “parishes and missions” include great numbers of mission stations that could not possibly support a resident priest. The number of (married) clergy dependent upon well-established parishes for livelihood undoubtedly exceeds the supply of such parishes. There are not nearly clergy enough for the Church's missionary work, but neither are there enough “livings” for the clergy who seek them. It should be well recognized that the need for more clergy is confined to such as can work on very small stipends in home mission fields, and that there is already an overplus of clergy, seeking work in those parishes that are able to pay reasonable stipends to clergymen with families. The crying need is less for more clergy than for a better equilibrium between classes of clergy; and side by side with the unheeded call for unmarried clergy for mission work is the unheeded call of clergymen with dependent families for work that will give them a fair sustenance. We believe that this condition should be frankly presented to young men seeking holy orders. It involves no theory whatever relative to the academic right of the clergy to marry, but an actual condition, which will confront many of them as they approach middle age. We have both too many and too few clergy to man our work. In the meantime both candidates for orders and postulants show a decrease. As compared with ten years ago we report this year 40 less candidates and 12 more postulants.

Other statistics of the year are more favorable. The gain in Baptisms is the largest reported in six years, and that in Sunday school pupils larger than for many years. Here is the really hopeful side of the year's statistics, and it is where we have usually the least gains, if not actual losses. The general relative decline in Infant Baptisms and in Sunday school attendance in years past is, obviously, a large factor in reducing the communicant gains of to-day, and one wonders that Confirmations have kept up so well during all these years and continued annually to increase. This gain in Baptisms, Confirmations, and Sunday school children is the vindication of the work of the Church in her parishes. The declining percentage of increase in communicants is due to social factors that are not her fault and that cannot wholly be prevented, though it is our duty to stay them as far as we can. Happily the subject is now being carefully studied on all sides, and general statistics, as well as such special studies as that of The Country Church by Messrs. Gill and Pinehot, show that the tendency to drift away from organized Christianity, with its consequent losses, is even more pronounced in other religious bodies such as receive little or no gains from immigration, than it is among ourselves.

It is a pleasure to direct attention to the fact that the number of depositions from the ministry is less than for many years.

On the whole, our statistics, though depressing from some points of view, are probably as good as could be expected, and certainly they show real work on the part of the clergy and others. That more work is being done than ever before is shown not only in those figures, already quoted, that relate to results of pastoral work, but also in the larger contributions, both for general and for missionary purposes:

The Tables of Lessons

The lessons which will be found in the kalendar pages (28-50) are those from the Lectionary in the Book of Common Prayer, thus breaking the practice of the last two years when they have been taken from the trial Lectionary set forth by the General Convention of 1910 for tentative use.

At the time it was necessary for these tables to be prepared and printed, it was impossible to learn what would be the recommendation of the Joint Commission to be presented to the General Convention of 1913. In the doubt whether the Lectionary of 1910 would again be authorized, and in the belief that trial use was no longer necessary, it was deemed inexpedient to use that Lectionary as the basis for the kalendar, and there was no option therefore but to fall back upon the Prayer Book tables.

At the recommendation of the Joint Commission, the General Convention of 1913 reauthorized the Lectionary of 1910 for continued use for another three years, or until January 1, 1915, in recognition of the fact that their new recommendations to General Convention and the authorization of the latter must necessarily be given too late for adaptation to the kalendar in the Church almanacs for 1914. They have also prepared an entirely new series of tentative lessons which have received the authorization of the General Convention of 1913 for use until the next General Convention. Without the possibility of adapting this new Lectionary to the kalendar, the schedule of it is presented in the following pages, with the recommendation that where convenient, these be tried during the coming year; and this new trial Lectionary will be the basis of the lessons prepared for the kalendar in next year's ANNUAL. Thus there is now lawful in the Church (1) the Prayer Book Lectionary, (2) the Lectionary of 1910 (until January 1, 1915), and (3) the Lectionary of 1913 shown in the pages next following herewith. It is also provided by resolutions of the last General Convention that in the use of either of these series, the lessons for Morning and Evening Prayer may be used interchangeably at the discretion of the minister; that "in reading any lesson, the minister may omit an initial conjunction and substitute for a pronoun at the beginning, the name represented by such pronoun"; and that "when the order for the Holy Communion is not used on a Holy day, the Scriptures appointed for the Epistle and Gospel for the day may be used in place of the lessons if desired." The Commission has been continued, its title being changed to Joint Commission on the Lectionary, and it has been authorized to receive further suggestions arising from the tentative use of tables in order to complete their work before the next General Convention, and also to prepare a table showing the precedence of feasts falling upon the same day.

On the following pages are printed the tables of the Trial Lectionary of 1913.

N. B.—The Gospel lessons from Christmas to Trinity form an outline of the life of our Lord. Those for the Trinity season are topical, and especially aim to give some of His important teachings, omitted from the previous course for lack of space.

The other Lessons from Advent to Trinity are chiefly topical.

The Old Testament Lessons in the Trinity season present two continuous courses in Old Testament history, one for morning and one for evening, each covering two years, as follows: Morning, 1st year, Genesis; 2d year, the Exodus to the entrance to Canaan; Evening, 1st year, entrance to Canaan, to David; 2d year, David to the Captivity.

In view of the Table of Lessons from the Prophets and Wisdom books, no lessons from the Wisdom literature are given, except a few from Ecclesiastes.

ECLIPSES, 1914.

There will be four eclipses this year, two of the Sun and two of the Moon, and a transit of Mercury, as follows:

I. Annular of the Sun February 24. Invisible in North America. Visible in the Southern Pacific Ocean, Antarctic region and extreme southern end of South America. Returns March 5, 1932, when it will be annular again.

II. Partial of the Moon on the evening of March 11 and morning of the 12th. The size of the eclipse will be about 11 digits when at the middle. The first contact of the limbs of the shadow and the Moon will take place on the eastern limb of the Moon, from which point she will pass through the great black shadow of the Earth, whose presence and boundary is only made visible by the immersion of the full Moon's bright face therein—one of the visible proofs of the roundness of the earth, as only a round body can cast a round shadow. The next eclipse of this series occurs March 20, 1932, when it will be larger and visible in the United States. The following is the standard time of the different phases:

| | Inter-Col. | Eastern. | Central. | Mountain. | Pacific. |
|------------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|-----------|
| Begins at A..... | 10:42 p.m. | 9:42 p.m. | 8:42 p.m. | 7:42 p.m. | 6:42 p.m. |
| Middle at B..... | 0:13 a.m. | 11:13 p.m. | 10:13 p.m. | 9:13 p.m. | 8:13 p.m. |
| Ends at C..... | 1:44 a.m. | 0:44 a.m. | 11:44 p.m. | 10:44 p.m. | 9:44 p.m. |

III. Total of the Sun August 21. Visible as a small partial eclipse on the Sun's northern limb in Northeastern North America. Throughout the Great Lakes region the Sun will rise with the eclipse on. A line from Newport, R. I., through New York City to Washington, D. C., thence westerly to Louisville, thence north-erly to Indianapolis, Des Moines, Fargo and Winnipeg roughly marks the south-ern and western boundary of the area of visibility, and west and south of this line no part of the eclipse will be visible. This eclipse will recur August 30, 1932, when it will be total again.

IV. Partial of the Moon September 4. The beginning only will be visible in the United States, and that only on the Pacific Coast, as far east as Colorado and New Mexico, where the Moon will be setting as the eclipse begins, and to the west of which the Moon will set more or less eclipsed on her southern limb. The Pacific standard time of the visible phases is: Beginning, at A, 4:16 a. m.; middle, at B, 5:55 a. m. At the time of Eclipse II the Moon will be moving southward, being at her descending node, while in this one she will be at her ascending node and moving northward. This eclipse recurs September 14, 1932, when it will be larger.

V. A transit of the planet Mercury across the disk of the Sun November 7. The Sun will rise with the planet on its face. This event can only be seen with the aid of a small telescope, opera or field glass, and smoked or stained glass should always be used between the eye and instrument, as otherwise the eye will suffer seriously from the concentrated rays of the Sun.

Notes on the Kalendar

FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD 1914

The Lectionary in the accompanying tables is that which is printed in the Prayer Book, thus changing from the Trial Lectionary of 1910 which has been used since that year; these tables being necessarily printed before the General Convention of 1913 has had the opportunity of taking action. "At Evening Prayer on Sunday, the Minister may read the Lesson from the Gospels appointed for that day of the Month, in place of the Second Lesson for the Sunday."

The following rules are also in force;

"If in any church upon a Sunday or Holy Day, both Morning and Evening Prayer be not said, the Minister may read the Lessons appointed for Morning or Evening Prayer."

"Upon any day for which no Proper Lessons are provided, the Lessons appointed in the Calendar for any day in the same week may be read in place of the Lessons for the Day.

Ratio of Communicants

TO THE POPULATION OF THE UNITED STATES SINCE 1830.

| | POPULATION. | COMMUNICANTS. | RATIO. |
|---------------------------------|-------------|---------------|--------|
| 1830 | 12,867,000 | 80,939 | 1-416 |
| 1840 | 17,069,500 | 55,427 | 1-308 |
| 1850 | 23,347,884 | 79,987 | 1-292 |
| 1860 | 31,442,960 | 146,600 | 1-214 |
| 1870 | 38,555,983 | 220,000 | 1-175 |
| 1880 | 50,152,866 | 844,789 | 1-151 |
| 1890 | 62,480,540 | 509,149 | 1-123 |
| 1900 | 76,295,220 | 714,575 | 1-107 |
| 1906 (U. S. Census estimate)... | 84,246,252 | 886,942* | 1-95 |
| 1910 | 92,284,139 | 928,780 | 1-99 |

* In order that comparisons may be based upon uniform data, it should be observed that the number of communicants reported by the LIVING CHURCH ANNUAL of 1907 (figures for 1906) was 837,073, so that for purposes of comparison the ratio of communicants to population in that year should be placed at 1-100. Thus it may be deduced that the actual number of communicants is from five to six per cent greater than that reported in the ANNUAL for any year, and the ratio correspondingly more favorable. This will also indicate that there has been no backward movement in the ratio between 1906 and 1910.

The Holy Catholic Church

A spiritual Kingdom of which JESUS CHRIST is the Head, and all persons baptized with water in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost are members.

Its government is vested by divine arrangement in a ministerial order called BISHOPS, which succeeds in office and in powers to the ministry of the APOSTLES. The ministry also includes, in addition to the order of BISHOPS, the two orders of Priests and Deacons, in each of which is vested certain of the powers, the authority, and the duties of the Ministry.

According to ancient arrangement, the normal order of the Church implies a Bishop as the spiritual head of each DIOCESE; a group of neighboring Dioceses comprises a PROVINCE, in which the executive Bishop is commonly termed an ARCHBISHOP; the entire body of the Church in any land comprises a NATIONAL CHURCH, with a METROPOLITAN or PRIMATE as executive. Over larger sections of the Church were—and in some of the older portions still are—PATRIARCHS, sometimes styled POPES, as chief executives. There were anciently five such Patriarchs or Popes, being respectively the Bishops of the sees of Rome, Constantinople, Alexandria, Antioch, and Jerusalem.

The ideal organization of the Church is therefore one of complete unity, in which all Bishops are equal in order and in episcopal power, but in which general executives preside over groups of Bishops in a continually widening circle. The supreme body of the Catholic Church is the GENERAL COUNCIL, composed of all the Bishops of the Church, either throughout the world or over a large section of it, summoned, ordinarily, by Civil Authority, for the determination of questions involving the Faith of the Church. Seven of such General Councils are also termed ECUMENICAL COUNCILS, since their decrees have been accepted as of binding authority in substantially the entire Church. These seven Ecumenical Councils are those of I. Nice (A. D. 325); I. Constantinople (381); Ephesus (431); Chalcedon (451); II. Constantinople (553); III. Constantinople (680); and II. Nice (787). In matters of discipline each national Church is supreme in its own land, except to the extent that Churches admitting the supreme authority of the Roman see have lost that right.

But in fact the outward unity of the Church is broken. In the ninth century the Churches of the Greek rite, embracing four of the five Patriarchates, on the one hand, and the Churches of the Latin rite, under the Patriarch or Pope of Rome, on the other, severed friendly relations and have since not been in communion with each other. In the sixteenth century, the Churches of England and Ireland on the one hand, and the Churches of Western Europe under the Patriarchate of Rome on the other, broke communion with each other. There are thus at the present time three great groups in the Catholic Church, called respectively the EASTERN [or GREEK] COMMUNION, the ROMAN [or LATIN] COMMUNION, and the ANGLICAN COMMUNION. From each of these, lesser bodies have also gone out; and there are also, particularly in English-speaking lands, a large number of sects, frequently composed in large part of persons who, being baptized, are members of the Catholic Church, but whose organizations form no part of that Church and are in organized opposition to it. These bodies are termed PROTESTANTS; and when the name CHURCH is applied to any group of them, it is to be understood only in a subordinate sense, these being voluntary organizations of men banded together for religious purposes on a common platform or confession of faith, but not to be esteemed corporately as branches of the historic Catholic Church.

THE EASTERN OR GREEK COMMUNION

The Eastern Communion is officially termed The Holy Orthodox Catholic Apostolic Oriental [or Eastern] Church, and is commonly known by the adjective Orthodox. It comprises fourteen distinct bodies in communion with each other. These are the modern representatives of the Church in the Byzantine Empire, and from the eleventh century have constituted a distinct communion in the Catholic Church out of communion with the Churches of Western Europe. They teach the three Catholic Creeds without the Filioque, recognize the seven Ecumenical Councils, and hold that the Holy Scriptures should be interpreted strictly in accordance with the teachings of those Councils and the holy fathers. They have from the earliest times been strongly opposed to the Papal Supremacy. They recognize the Blessed Virgin as "Mother of God," and honor the Nine Orders of Angels and the Saints; do not accept the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and reject the doctrine of the surplus merits of saints and the doctrine of indulgences. They respect relics of the saints, pictures of holy subjects, and the cross, but forbid the use of carved images. They accept seven sacraments. They use the term Transubstantiation to express their doctrine of the Holy Eucharist, though probably without intending to imply the medieval philosophy understood by that term in English-speaking countries, and in the sacrament use leavened bread dipped in the consecrated wine. Holy unction is administered to the sick, and not alone to those in danger of death. The Church rejects the doctrine of Purgatory, but believes in the beneficial effect of prayer for the dead by the living, and for the living by the dead. It rejects the doctrine of predestination, and considers that for justification both faith and works are necessary. Serious efforts are being made by many careful thinkers in the Eastern and the Anglican Communion to draw these into closer relationship, and the Anglican and Eastern-Orthodox Churches Union and other societies in Europe and in Japan are organizations with members in both communions working toward that end.

The following are the fourteen Churches that together make up the Orthodox Communion:

I. Those of the patriarchate of Constantinople situated in Turkey in Europe, Turkish Islands in the Aegean, and Asia Minor north of the patriarchate of Antioch and west of the Euphrates, and under the direction of the "Most Entirely Holy Archbishop of Constantinople, New Rome, and Ecumenical Patriarch." The governing body is the Holy Synod, consisting of 12 Metropolitans with the Patriarch. There are 80 Metropolitans or Exarchs, 39 diocesan Bishops, 16 Suffragans, in addition to a varying number of retired Bishops and Patriarchs. The numerical strength of this Church was about 9,000,000 at last available reports, but these figures will probably be much diminished by the rearrangement of territory, which will include ecclesiastical jurisdiction, as a result of the recent war.

II. Those of the patriarchate of Alexandria in Egypt, subject to the "Most Blessed and Holy Pope and Patriarch of the Great City Alexandria, and of all Egypt, Pentapolis, Libya, and Ethiopia; Father of Fathers, Pastor of Pastors, Archbishop of Archbishops, Thirteenth Apostle and Ecumenical Judge." They number about 200,000 strong. This is the second patriarchate in age, dating from the year 67. There are 7 Metropolitans or Exarchs in this Church.

III. Those of the patriarchate of Antioch, oldest of all the Churches of the world, located in Cilicia, all Syria, north of Palestine, and Mesopotamia, and under the direction of the "Most Blessed and Holy Patriarch of the Divine City Antioch, Syria, Arabia, Cilicia, Iberia, Mesopotamia, and all the East; Father of Fathers, and Pastor of Pastors." The numerical strength is about 600,000. There are 11 Metropolitans and 3 other Bishops.

IV. Those of the patriarchate of Jerusalem located in Palestine, and south to Egypt, and subject to the "Most Blessed and Holy Patriarch of the Holy City Jerusalem, and all Palestine, Syria, Arabia beyond Jordan, Cana in Galilee, and Holy Sion." There are about 60,000 of these with 4 Metropolitans and 7 Archbishops.

V. The Church of Russia, governed by the Holy Synod of Russia. There are 3 Metropolitans, 16 Archbishops, 45 Bishops (in Russia); the Exarch of Georgia and 3 Bishops under him; 3 Bishops in America, with a considerable number of Vicar—or Coadjutor—Bishops and retired Bishops. Its numerical strength is about 100,000,000. The Russian Church was subject to the Patriarch of Constantinople until 1589, when a patriarchate of Moscow was created, but that was abolished in 1721, when the ecclesiastical government was vested in the Holy Governing Synod, which consists of twelve members. The president is the "Most Reverend the Metropolitan of St. Petersburg and Ladoga, Abbot of St. Alexander Nevsky Lavra." This Church has jurisdiction throughout the Russian Empire, and has also active missionary work in Japan and Alaska, and a number of churches in the United States. Subordinate to the Russian Church is also the Church in Asiatic Georgia which has been partially independent since the seventh century, and has 1,500,000 adherents. It is under the Exarch of Georgia, a member ex officio of the Holy Synod. The American work of the Russian Church is under the control of the Most Reverend Archbishop Platon, whose Cathedral is in New York City, and who has two Vicar Bishops under him, one for immediate supervision of the churches of Alaska and one for the Syrian churches. There are also in the United States 3 archimandrites, 3 archpriests, 2 priors, 51 priests, 14 hieromonks, 4 deacons, and 40 readers; or a total of 117 men, 9 of whom are Servian, 9 Syrian, and the remainder Russian. The archiepiscopal Cathedral in New York has under it, for the needs of eparchal government, the "North American Ecclesiastical Consistory," composed of four members. The Russian parishes in the vicinity of New York are in direct dependence on this consistory. All others, except those in Alaska and the Servian and Syrian parishes, which have especial administrators, are divided into districts, supervised by Deans, who have their headquarters in San Francisco and Chicago. The priests are appointed by the Archbishop to the various parishes, in accordance with the expressed wishes of the parishioners or of the priests themselves. The great majority of them are natives of Russia; the remainder have come from Austria-Hungary, Servia, or Syria. The Holy Synod of Russia allows $70,751 annually for the maintenance of the American eparchy, besides which the Missionary Society of Russia gives $2,599 for its purely missionary work. The Bishops, the official institutions, and the officers of the eparchy are supported by these appropriations, other expenses being met partly from parish fees. From the appropriations by the state treasury, the clergy received $40,972 in 1906, and in addition, from their parishes, the sum of $19,858. Missionary work is carried on among the Indians and Eskimos of Alaska, and there is a small work in Alberta, Canadian Northwest Territory. There is also a theological seminary of the Russian Church in Minneapolis, a school preparatory for that seminary in Cleveland, and a training school for Alaskan natives in Sitka. There is a monastery and an orphanage at South Canaan, Pa. According to the religious census of 1906 the Russian Church in the United States had then in the United States 19,111 communicants, including baptized children, 59 local organizations, 46 churches, and 25 parsonages.

VI. The Metropolitan Church of Cyprus on the island of that name has been independent since the year 431, and is under the "Most Blessed and Holy Archbishop of Nova Justiniana and All Cyprus." It has 180,000 adherents.

VII. The Servian Orthodox Church in Hungary, Croatia, and Slavonia is under the "Most Holy and Reverend the Archbishop of Carlowitz, Servian Metropolitan and Patriarch," and with Bosnia and Herzegovina has a strength somewhat in excess of 3,500,000. It has been recognized as an independent Church since 1743. There are 13 diocesan and 2 Suffragan Bishops.

VIII. The Church of Montenegro is under the "Metropolitan of Scanderia and the Seacoast, Archbishop of Tsettin (Cetinje), Ex-arch of the Holy Throne, of Ipek"; has been independent since 1176, and has a strength of 470,000, with 1 Metropolitan and 2 Bishops.

IX. The Church of Greece is governed by the Holy Synod in that kingdom, with the Metropolitan of Athens as President. It has 7 Metropolitans, 13 Archbishops, 20 other Bishops. This Church declared its independence of the Patriarch of Constantinople in 1833, and that independence was recognized by the Patriarch in 1850. There are about 2,000,000 adherents. There are a number of isolated parishes of this Church in the United States, with 334 local organizations, and in 1906, 90,751 members, 35 clergy, and 29 churches. In 1912 there were 70 churches and 175,000 members. There is no central ecclesiastical organization, though it is understood that plans are under consideration in the Holy Synod of Greece and by the Patriarch of Constantinople for establishing such an organization. The Greek churches in the United States receive no support from the home land. According to the report on the Eastern Orthodox Churches presented to the New England Missionary Department of 1912, the American parishes of the Greek Church "are far too large and many of the priests seem to lack true missionary zeal, and have become imbued with the spirit of commercialism. The absence of any Bishop and the complete control of parishes by the community committees have made possible unfortunate divisions in some places, as at present in Boston. There are also some Greek priests in America who have come without the authority of their Bishops, who, underbidding the priests of rightful authority, breed disturbances."

X. The Rumanian Orthodox Church in Hungary is under the "Most Reverend the Archbishop of Hermannstadt, Metropolitan of the Orthodox Rumanians in Hungary and Transylvania." Members of this Church in the Banat and Transylvania aggregate 1,713,000.

XI. Metropolitanate of Bukowina and Dalmatia is under the "Most Reverend the Archbishop of Czernowitz, Metropolitan of Bukowina and of Dalmatia." These are in Bukowina and Dalmatia, in Austria (of Serbs, Ruthenians, and Rumanians), and have constituted an independent Church since 1873. There are 1 Metropolitan and 2 (Servian) Bishops and a Serb population of about 120,000.

XII. The Church of Servia, independent since 1879, is organized under the "Archbishop of Belgrade and Metropolitan of All Servia," and, with its lately annexed territory, has a strength of about 4,000,000, with 1 Metropolitan and 8 Bishops. There are a number of Servian churches in this country. It is estimated there were 24 churches with 59,000 members in 1912, in addition to 15 mission stations and 14 priests, and 12,000 communicants in Alaska.

(See articles on The Servian Church by Rev. T. J. Lacey in THE LIVING CHURCH of October 19 and December 14, 1912.)

XIII. The Church of Rumania is under the Holy Synod of Rumania with the "Archbishop and Metropolitan of Hungaro-Wal-lachia, Primate of All Rumania" as President, and with a strength of about 5,500,000. The Church has been recognized as independent since 1885. In 1912 there were 5 churches and 20,000 members of this communion in the United States.

XIV. The Church of Bulgaria, under the Exarch of Bulgaria, was for a number of years out of communion with the remainder of the Eastern Orthodox Churches, having withdrawn from the patri-archate of Constantinople and pursued a separate course. Immediately before the recent Balkan war however the differences were set-tled and communion with the other Churches was restored. Whether that communion has been broken as a result of the later inter-Balkan war cannot now be said. The numerical strength of the Bulgarian Church before the war was about 4,300,000. In 1912 there were 3 Bulgarian churches with 20,000 members in the United States, and they are especially susceptible to the influence of American Church-men.

SEPARATED COMMUNIONS OF THE EAST

In addition to the Eastern Churches commonly known as Orthodox, there are a number of lesser bodies held to be in constructive if not in actual heresy and out of communion with the group of Orthodox Churches already named. The chief of these are the following:

I. THE ARMENIANS. The Armenian Church was in full com-munion with the other portions of Christendom until the time of the Fourth General Council at Chalcedon, A. D. 451, at which the Armenians were not represented and after which there was general misunderstanding between that Church and the remaining Eastern Churches, so that communion was broken and has never been re-sumed. It is now understood that the theological differences be-tween them are largely apparent and not real. The Armenians have been persecuted for many centuries by the Turks, at times with great severity. Fleeing in late years for protection into Russian territory, they now charge the Russians with the confiscation of their property and with an attempt forcibly to secure their con-formity to the Russian Church. Their approximate strength is 3,750,000, of whom about one-half live in Armenia and the rest are scattered throughout the world. The Armenian Church is subject to its own Patriarch who bears the title of Catholicos and whose residence is at Etelmiadzine, a famous monastery at the foot of Mt. Ararat in Transeaucasis. Armenians have increasingly been coming to this country, and in 1889 the Rev. Hovsep Sarajian, a priest from Constantinople, was sent to minister to those in the state of Massa-chusetts, and a church was built at Worcester which has since be-come the headquarters of the Armenian Church in the United States.

Father Sarajian was afterward consecrated as Bishop and in 1903 was made an Archbishop, and the Armenian mission in the United States was divided into seven pastorates, over each of which a priest was appointed with the expectation that each will eventually become an independent diocese. These are respectively at Worcester, Mass.; New York; Boston; Lawrence, Mass.; Providence, R. I.; Fresno, Calif.; and Chicago, Ill. The present Archbishop in the United States is the Most Rev. Mouchehgh Seropian, 96 Day St., Jamaica Plain, Mass. The Armenians very generally welcome the friendly offices of the American Church. The Archbishop celebrates Mass twice a month at the Church of the Advent, Boston, and, in the words of the New England Report, "welcomes the help and sympathy of the American Catholic Church, which he says, is more nearly in touch with the Armenian Church than any other religious body." The Armenian Catholicos is His Grace Kevork V., with residence at Etchmiadzin, Caucasus.

II. The Coptic Church of Egypt, with that of Abyssinia, constitutes a communion under the "Patriarch of Egypt, Jerusalem, the Holy City, Nubia, Abyssinia, the Five Western Cities and all the preaching of St. Mark," whose residence is at Cairo, and under whom are about 260,000. There is also of the same communion the Church of Abyssinia under the "Catholicos or Metropolitan of Axum or Abyssinia." Both these Churches have fallen into a very unhappy condition, and the latter, especially, which is the only existing native Church in Africa that dates back to primitive times, is a curious admixture of Christianity, Judaism, and Paganism. It is an offshoot of the Coptic Church of Egypt, and its Abuna or Metran is always consecrated by the Coptic Patriarch. Some attempts have been made since the British occupation of Egypt, and particularly during the Anglican episcopate of Bishop Blyth at Jerusalem, to elevate the condition of the Coptic Church of that country, and an English Bishopric suffragan to the Anglican Bishopric in Jerusalem is now established at Khartum. The Coptic Patriarch is Amba Gurghos, with residence at Cairo, Egypt.

III. The West Syrian or Jacobite Church of Syria, Mesopotamia, etc., is an offshoot of the old Monophysite sect which taught that our Lord had one nature only, confusing the human with the divine. The Jacobites of today claim that they have practically abandoned that heresy, and that it rested only on mutual misunderstanding. They are subject to the Jacobite Patriarch of Antioch. There are 400,000 of these people located in the territory between Antioch and Mosul, comprising the ancient province of Syria Superior, the western part of Cilicia, and the northern part of Mesopotamia and India. Their chief Bishop is called "Mar Ignatius Abdoullah, by the 'Grace of God Patriarch of the Apostolic Throne of Antioch, of India,' and all the East," and his see is at Deyr-el Zafran, Turkey.

IV. The Assyrian, Chaldean, or East Syrian Church occupies that part of Kurdistan which lies in Turkey and Persia between the towns of Van, Jezireh, and Mosul on the west and the Lake of Urmi on the east, and comprises some 200,000 people under the Patriarch Mar Shimun, Catholicos of the East, whose residence is at Shemdinan, Kurdistan. These come into touch with the Anglican Communion through the Archbishop of Canterbury's Mission to the Assyrian Christians, which is striving to raise the standards of education and of religion among those people. Emissaries claiming to be of this Church, seeking to collect funds in the United States for its work, of which there appear to be many, should be viewed with great caution and should not be entrusted with money. Those desiring to assist in the work of this Church should send contributions through Mr. Woodbury G. Langdon, Treasurer of the Assyrian Mission Committee of the American Church in coöperation with the Archbishop of Canterbury's Mission. Address 59 East 59th St., New York.

V. The Syrian Church of Malabar, South India, which depends for its episcopate upon the Jacobite Patriarch of Antioch, and is nominally Jacobite. During the past century there has been a revival of learning and a partial reformation of this body, and in late years they have made earnest pleas to Anglicans of England and the United States for help and intercommunion. This has been hindered by friction between the native Church and the local representatives (C. M. S.) of the Church of England, and by the episcopal consecration by the Syrians of Rene Vilatte, a deposed priest of the American Church, in Old Catholic orders, whose career has been erratic, and whose episcopal orders have been pronounced by the American House of Bishops to be "null and void." The Syrians now explain that his consecration was made under a misapprehension of the facts concerning Vilatte, and that they no longer recognize Vilatte as in communion with them. Their chief Bishop (a graduate of the English University of Madras) is the Metran of Melankaria, who resides at the city of that name. There are some 200,000 of these people and they inhabit the South India principalities of Travancore and Cochin. They had fallen into a low intellectual condition from which they are now very happily emerging and are quite in touch with the best Anglican thought.

VI The Maronites, a body of Syriac Christians now organized as Uniats of the Roman Communion. They inhabit chiefly the mountain country of Lebanon, and derive their name from St. Maron, a Syrian monk (about A. D. 400). They were formerly Monothelites, but have been in communion with Rome since the twelfth century and have adopted many Roman customs. They are organized under the Maronite Patriarch of Antioch, residence Becherche-Dimon, Syria. They retain their native liturgy, but have lately adopted a Syrian adaptation of the Latin Mass. They allow marriage of the clergy and communion in both kinds. There are about 300,000 of these.

In addition to these there are other bodies of oriental Christians in communion with Rome, especially in Austria-Hungary, the Ruthenians, 3,500,000, and Rumanians, 1,400,000; the Melchites, about 150,000; the Armenian Uniat Church, 130,000; the Syrian Uniat Church, 25,000; the Chaldean Uniat Church with 70,000 Chaldeans under the Patriarch of Babylon; the Uniat Church of Malabar with 200,000; and the Uniat Coptic Church, 20,000. There are also about 250,000 Albanians in North Albania who are Roman Catholics of the Latin Rite. There are a number of small Protestant congregations throughout the whole of the Turkish Empire, being for the most part converts of the American Presbyterian and Congregational missions, and some few of the English C. M. S. In Russia there are also some 11,500,000 people who are dissenters from the established Church, and who belong to various sects, some of them of a very curious nature.

THE ROMAN OR LATIN COMMUNION

Comprises the Churches of Western Continental Europe, together with their missionary foundations on all continents.

When the disruption between the East and West occurred in the eleventh century, the Roman Patriarchate was left isolated in Catholic Christendom, withdrawing from communion with the other four Patriarchates, and pursuing from that time an independent course in Christendom. The see of Rome therefore speedily developed an autoeracy that extended over all the West European Churches, but was and still is consistently repudiated by the East. That autoeracy led to the dogma of a PAPAL SUPREMACY which made the Pope or Patriarch of Rome supreme over all Bishops and Churches, and ultimately led to the promulgation of the decree of PAPAL INFALLIBILITY in 1870. The Church of England, especially after the Norman Conquest (1066) was increasingly drawn, like the Continental Churches, under the sway of the Papacy, until the 16th century, when she repudiated the entire Papal jurisdiction and, with the Church of Ireland, and Churches planted later in Scotland, the United States, and in the British colonies and pagan lands, has since pursued a separate course as the ANGLICAN COMMUNION.

The characteristic tenets of the Roman Communion are (1) the Papal Supremacy and Infallibility; (2) the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, declared to be of faith in 1854; (3) certain philosophical definitions of the Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist, described by the term Transubstantiation; (4) an extreme cultus of the Blessed Virgin according to which devotion paid to her is undistinguishable, except by trained theologians, from the worship paid to Almighty God; (5) compulsory celibacy of all the clergy; and (6) a very rigid discipline, chiefly exercised by means of compulsory confession. In addition to the Seven Ecumenical Councils recognized by the East, she holds to a number of other and exclusively Latin Councils as of equal authority. In addition to the three Catholic Creeds, she holds a fourth, the Creed of Pius IV., set forth in 1564, and embodying the decrees of the Council of Trent, to which were later added those of the Vatican Council of 1870. In practice, the dogma of the Temporal Sovereignty of the Pope, which since the Italian Revolution has been theoretical rather than practical, has led in history to violent antagonism between the Papacy and those nations which reject its authority, and to this old-time political antagonism are largely due the animosities of Englishmen and North Europeans against Rome, which have not yet disappeared.

It cannot be said that the relations between the Roman and other Catholic communions are improving. The latter are under Papal anathema and every effort is made to bring their members under the Papal jurisdiction. The dawn of a better day seemed probable a few years since, when, at the instance of certain distinguished French priests, the then Pope, Leo XIII., caused an inquiry to be made into the validity of Anglican Orders. Those hopes were dispelled when the Papal pronouncement denying such validity was issued, upon grounds which were easily refuted by the English Archbishops in a letter addressed to the whole Catholic episcopate, and by other scholars. The jurisdiction of the Churches of the Anglican Communion is denied and invaded by Rome, and a new Roman hierarchy was set up in England in the middle of the nineteenth century. The Roman Communion has, however, been distinguished by great missionary zeal and has become firmly established in many parts of the globe in which the Pope had by ancient right no jurisdiction.

The Papal hierarchy is organized under "His Holiness the Pope, Bishop of Rome and Vicar of Jesus Christ, Successor of St. Peter, Prince of the Apostles, Supreme Pontiff of the Universal Church, Patriarch of the West, Primate of Italy, Archbishop and Metropolitan of the Roman Province, Sovereign of the Temporal Dominions of the Holy Roman Church," Pius X. When pronouncing ex cathedra upon a subject in faith or morals, the Pope is held to be infallible. The Supreme Council of the Church is the College of Cardinals, which, when complete, consists of 70 members, of whom 6 are termed Cardinal Bishops, 50 Cardinal Priests, and 14 Cardinal Deacons. There are 14 PATRIARCHS of the Latin Communion, most of whom, however, are intruded into sees of the Eastern Communion.

The hierarchy in the United States is under an APOSTOLIC DELEGATE, residing at Washington, D. C. There are 14 Provinces with an Archbishop over each, and 74 other Bishops, with several Auxiliary Bishops. These do not include the hierarchy in the farther possessions of the United States, which embraces the following: Alaska, a Prefecture-Apostolic; Hawaii, a Vicariate-Apostolic; Porto Rico, one Bishop; Philippine Islands, an Apostolic Delegate, one Archbishop, 8 Bishops. There are three American CARDINALS.

THE OLD CATHOLICS

In 1723, after a long controversy over what was popularly termed "Jansenism," one Stenhoven, a Jansenist, was consecrated as Archbishop of Utrecht, Holland, by Varlet, a suspended (Roman) Bishop of Babylon in partibus, and from him has been perpetuated the episcopal succession of the JANSENIST CHURCH OF HOLLAND. That Church retains most of the features that characterized Roman Catholicism in the early eighteenth century, without the nineteenth century Roman additions. After the Vatican Council of 1870, a number of Roman theologians in Germany and Switzerland dissented and, receiving the episcopate from the Jansenist Church of Holland, organized the movement which obtained the name of OLD CATHOLIC or CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC. These Old Catholics have since further purified the doctrine and the worship which they inherited from Rome.

Both the American Church and the Lambeth Conference have repeatedly given their expressions of sympathy to this movement, and close relations have been instituted between them. Bishop Herzog of Switzerland was an honored guest at the General Convention of 1880.

Old Catholics in the United States are represented by the "Polish National Church of America." This body was previously divided into two parts, the "Polish National Church" centering at Scranton, Pa., and the "Polish Independent Catholic Church," centering in Chicago. The latter first received the episcopate from European Old Catholic Bishops, when Anton Kozlowski was consecrated. Bishop Kozlowski eventually applied to the American House of Bishops for recognition and comity under the provisions of the Quadrilateral, but the memorial was permitted to drag on without determination until at length Bishop Kozlowski died. The Old Catholic Bishops then consecrated Francis Hodur, of the Scranton wing, to be Bishop, and the two branches of the Polish Church in the United States were consolidated.

For England an Old Catholic Bishop, Arnold H. Mathew, was consecrated several years ago. He afterward declared his independence of the Old Catholic Bishops on the Continent, and on August 5, 1911, was received, with a small work under him, into union with the Eastern Orthodox communion by the Most Rev. Gerassimos Messara, Archbishop and Metropolitan of Beirut, Syria, in the Patriarchate of Antioch, and his mission is now termed The Old Catholics in Great Britain and Ireland of the Western Orthodox Church.

THE ANGLICAN COMMUNION

Comprises the Churches of England and Ireland, the Episcopal Church of Scotland, the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and the various Colonial and Missionary Churches planted and maintained by these, including the Nippon Sei Kokwai, or Holy Catholic Church in Japan, and the Chung Hua Sheng Kung Hui, or Holy Catholic Church in China.

The Anglican Communion is a portion of the Western Church, and was a section of the Latin Communion until the repudiation by the Church of England of the Papal claims in 1533. It is incorrect, however, to say that it ever was a part of the Roman Catholic Church, that term properly applying only to the Latin mission set up in England, and afterward in other lands, after the separation. There are self-governing Churches in England, Ireland, Scotland, the United States, Canada, South Africa, Australia, Japan, and China (the two latter being partly dependent upon the English, American, and Canadian Churches), and dependent mission Churches in other lands. The entire Anglican episcopate meets informally once in about ten years at the invitation and under the presidency of the ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY, these meetings being known as the LAMBETH CONFERENCES.

The characteristic marks of the Anglican Communion are (1) the wide toleration of differences within its Churches, coupled with firm adherence to the Catholic creeds; (2) a marked influence upon it from the Protestant movement, which resulted in the temporary suspension of many Catholic practices, without formally repudiating them, many of them having of recent years been widely resumed; (3) the administration of the Holy Communion in both kinds; (4) the postponement of Confirmation until such time as children are able to recite the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, etc.; (5) the permissive marriage of all the clergy. With the Eastern Communion, she (1) repudiates the Papacy (2) and the doctrines formulated by Rome since the cleavage between East and West. With the Roman Communion she holds (1) to the Filioque clause in the Creed; (2) to a simpler ceremonial than that common in the East; (3) to the restriction of authority to administer Confirmation to the Bishops, and (unlike the Roman Communion) admitting no exception to that rule.

With both these Catholic Communions she maintains the ancient threefold Ministry of the Church, administers Confirmation, provides for Confession (but does not declare it compulsory), and teaches the authority of the Church in matters of faith. She distinguishes between "two Sacraments ordained of Christ our Lord in the Gospel" and "five commonly called Sacraments," making official provision, however, for administering four of the latter and not prohibiting the fifth. With the later Protestant Churches she holds (1) to a large degree of individual liberty of conscience; (2) an insistence upon the study of the Bible in the vernacular and on worship in the language of the people; (3) a rejection of the "Romish doctrine" (which should not be misinterpreted as a rejection of all doctrine) "concerning Purgatory, Pardons, Worshipping, and Adoration, as well of Images as of Relics, and also Invocation of Saints," and also of "Transubstantiation (or the change of the substance of Bread and Wine in the Supper of the Lord)"; and (4) she maintains that "The Offering of Christ once made is that perfect redemption, propitiation, and satisfaction, for all the sins of the whole world, both original and actual." The Anglican Communion thus occupies a central position in Christendom, touching each of the other Communion in vital parts, having much sympathy with each, and it has earnestly labored to re-unite these long separated bodies into such measure of harmony as to restore inter-communion between all who profess and call themselves Christians. To that end the Declaration known as the Quadrilateral was set forth in 1886-88, and measures were taken (by the American Church) in 1910 looking toward the ultimate holding of a world-wide Conference on the Faith and Order of the Church, in which all sections of organized Christianity should participate, but which would be charged with no final authority over any of its constituent parts.

PROTESTANTS

Ever since the early days of the Reformation, there have been successive splits from both the Anglican and the Latin Communion, by means of which the PROTESTANT DENOMINATIONS, now commonly termed Churches, but not to be confused with the national Churches comprising the one Holy Catholic Church, have been formed. In so far as members of these Protestant denominations have been duly baptized, they are also commonly reckoned to be members of the Holy Catholic Church, though not loyally rendering obedience to it; but their various organizations, of which there are several hundred, are to be reckoned only as voluntary associations of Christian people. The largest of these in the United States, most of which, however, are broken into several distinct bodies, are the METHODISTS, BAPTISTS, LUTHERANS, PRESBYTERIANS, DISCIPLES OF CHRIST, and CONGREGATIONALISTS.

The use of the term Protestant in the legal title of the Protestant Episcopal Church should not be confused with the more usual implication of the term among other Christians as designating those bodies that split from the historic Catholic Church, either at the Reformation or since.

The Protestant denominations in Anglican lands show now a tendency rather to come together than to continue the common disintegration of the past few centuries, and their former deep-seated prejudice against the Church and her customs has been greatly modified.

The Protestant denominations have generally abandoned the episcopate, though in some form it is retained by (1) the Reformed Episcopalians of the United States; and (2) the Church of Sweden. The validity of the orders conferred by the first of these bodies is not recognized by the Anglican Churches, since the intention to retain the ancient order is in doubt, and the admission of ministers from non-episcopal bodies without re-ordination has tended further to vitiate their orders. The validity of Swedish orders is a mooted question, now under investigation by the Lambeth Conference. The Methodists have Bishops who do not purport to have received succession from the ancient episcopate, and who comprise an office rather than an order in the Church. Certain lesser bodies give the title BISHOP to certain officials without in any way transmitting to them the ancient episcopal succession.

ALABAMA, DIOCESE OF

The tenth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Beekwith was celebrated at Montgomery on December 17, 1912, with a complimentary dinner tendered the Bishop on the preceding evening, and a service at eleven o'clock on the anniversary morning, when a sermon was delivered by the Rev. R. H. Cobbs, D.D., son of the first Bishop of Alabama and for more than fifty years a member of the diocese.

On May 17, 1913, the diocese suffered the loss of its first Bishop, the Rt. Rev. WILLIAM CROSWELL DOANE, D.D., LL.D., who was succeeded as Bishop of the diocese by the Coadjutor, the Rt. Rev. Richard Henry Nelson, D.D.

At the annual convention held in November, 1912, endorsement was given to the movement to secure an amendment to the Constitution of the United States providing for a uniform marriage and divorce law, and the deputies to General Convention were requested to bring the matter before that body. It was also "Resolved, That some united action be secured to obtain a well-written and attractive history of England, setting forth the Catholic position of the Church both in England and in this country."

AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION

The report of the American Church Building Fund Commission just issued shows that the Permanent Fund of the Commission at the close of the fiscal year August 31, 1913, is $526,557.53. This amount is composed of special gifts to found named memorial funds ($125,812.50); special memorial funds ($15,598.53); legacies ($141,251.76). From all other sources there has been received the sum of $243,894.74.

During the past three years forty-five loans have been negotiated amounting to $128,500 for the building of thirty-one churches, seven rectories, and seven parish houses. The loans negotiated since the Commission was inaugurated in 1880 have amounted to $788,119.00.

The first gift made by the Commission was in July, 1893. Since that time 724 churches have been aided by grants of money, amounting in all to $170,143.88. The total amount of gifts made to help churches in distant missionary fields is $9,250.00.

The rate of interest on all loans hereafter will be 5 per cent per annum.

BABCOCK, SAMUEL GAVITT,

Suffragan Bishop of Massachusetts, was born in Newport, R. I., on October 8, 1851, the son of Stanton Babcock, a native of Westerly, and Sarah J. (White) Babcock of Newport. On his father's side he was descended from one of the notable families of southern Rhode Island, a family whose members furnished many public men and preachers, there having been at least one minister in each of the six generations of immediate ancestors. His mother's ancestry dates back to Peregrine White of the Plymouth Pilgrim Colony. The Archdeacon attended the Newport High School, the Phillips School at Salem, and in 1868 he was graduated from the Salem High School. Business matters interfered with graduation at a college and obliged him to postpone entrance into the ministry, but in time, all financial responsibilities having been fully met, he disposed of his business and entered the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge, Mass., becoming a member of the class of 1891. He was ordained deacon on January 13, 1878, and priest on September 28, 1890, both by Bishop Clark of Rhode Island. During his diaconate, while in business, he was active in local missionary work. He also acted as assistant to the Rev. D. R. Brewer of Christ Church, Westerly, R. I. His first duty after ordination to the priesthood was as curate of Grace Church, Providence, R. I. In 1892 he became rector of Christ Church, Hyde Park, Mass., where he served until 1903, when he resigned to accept the appointment by Bishop Lawrence as Archdeacon of Massachusetts. From 1899 to 1903, while rector of Hyde Park, he had acted, by the Bishop's appointment, as Archdeacon of New Bedford. All this had given him fourteen years of experience in the Massachusetts Church missionary field, which for ten years he had administered under the Bishop for the entire diocese. Elected to be Suffragan Bishop of Massachusetts, he was consecrated on Tuesday, June 17, 1913, at Trinity Church, Boston, by his diocesan, Bishop Lawrence, assisted by Bishop Brent of the Philippines, Bishop Parker of New Hampshire, and Bishop Davies of Western Massachusetts, who was also the preacher. The candidate was presented by Bishop Codman of Maine and Bishop Perry of Rhode Island. His attending presbyters were the Rev. Edward T. Sullivan of Newton Centre and the Rev. Guy W. Miner, a diocesan missionary, who has long been closely associated with the new Bishop. The Rev. Frederick B. Allen, superintendent of the City Mission, was master of ceremonies and Mr. Joseph Grafton Minot was chief marshal.

BINNEY, JOHN, D.D., LL.D.,

Professor emeritus and former Dean of the Berkeley Divinity School, born in Philadelphia on February 23, 1844, died at Middletown, Conn., June 12, 1913. He was the son of Horace Binney, Jr., of Philadelphia, and a brother of Charles C. Binney of the same city who died shortly afterward. Dr. Binney

RT. REV. SAMUEL G. BABCOCK
Suffragan Bishop of Massachusetts was graduated at Harvard University with the degrees of A.B., 1864, and A.M., 1867; and at Berkeley Divinity School, 1868. He received his degree of D.D. from Hobart and from Wesleyan University. He was ordained Deacon in 1868 and priest in 1869 by Bishop Williams of Connecticut, and his entire ministry was spent in that diocese. He was assistant at New London until 1870; rector of Christ Church, Norwich, 1870-74; of Christ Church, Middle Haddam, 1874-76; and began in 1874 his long service at the Berkeley Divinity School as chaplain and professor of Hebrew. In 1882 he took also the chair of Old Testament Literature and Interpretation, and from 1899 until 1908 was, first, Vice-Dean under Bishop Williams and then Dean of the seminary. He retired from active administrative work in the latter year, but retained his Old Testament chair until last year. Dr. Binney was a special student in archaeology and had spent some time in the Holy Land in personal research. Dr. Binney's funeral service was held at the chapel of the Berkeley Divinity School on Monday, and the body was then taken for interment to Boston.

BRIGGS, CHARLES A., D.D.,

Professor at the Union Theological Seminary, born in New York City, January 15, 1841, died in the same city, June 8, 1913. After taking a course at the University of Virginia he was graduated at Union Theological Seminary and at the University of Berlin. The degree of D.D. was given him in later years by Princeton University, Williams College, and the Universities of Edinburgh and Glasgow, while he received also that of D.Litt. from Oxford in 1901. He was ordained as a Presbyterian minister in 1870 and entered the faculty of the Union Theological Seminary in 1875 as Professor of Hebrew and Cognate languages. The storm among Presbyterians which led to his trial, acquittal, and final conviction and suspension was over a number of subjects relating to theology and the Bible and need not be recalled in detail. Dr. Briggs continued his work at the Union Seminary, and at length, applying for orders in the Church, was ordained by the late Bishop H. C. Potter, deacon in 1899 and priest in 1900. As author, translator, and editor his works are very numerous and cover many phases of Bible and theological research. Chief among his earlier works were: The Authority of Holy Scripture; The Higher Criticism of the Hexateuch; The Bible, the Church and Reason; The Messiah of the Apostles; and The Messiah of the Gospels. In later years his works have included A General Introduction to the Study of Holy Scripture; The Incarnation of the Lord; New Light on the Life of Jesus; Ethical Teachings of Jesus. He has also been an editor of the International Theological Library and International Critical Commentary and author of several volumes in each; and with Dr. S. R. Driver and Dr. Francis Brown was editor of a Hebrew Lexicon. He was for ten years editor of the Presbyterian Review.

CALIFORNIA, DIOCESE OF

At the diocesan convention in January, 1913, the "Round Table" measures as presented to the General Convention of 1910 were endorsed in full and were incorporated into a memorial to the General Convention of 1913 in the form of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the diocese of California hereby memorializes General

Convention, praying that the Title Page of the Prayer Book may be amended so that it shall read as follows:

THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER
And Administration of the Sacraments and other Rites and Ceremonies of the
HOLY CATHOLIC CHURCH
According to the use of that Branch thereof known as
THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH in the United States of America

“And further, that a Joint Commission of five Bishops, five presbyters, and five laymen be appointed to recommend to the following General Convention such legislation as is necessary or desirable to bring the official standards of this Church into harmony with the above change of title page.

“And further, that the said commission be instructed to report a form for the permanent embodiment in the organic law of this Church such statement as shall set forth the continuity of this Church through the Ancient Church of England, from the Historic Church founded by Christ himself; its loyalty to the principles established by and through the Reformation of the Church of England, as enshrined in the Book of Common Prayer; and its Catholic and comprehensive character.”

CANADA, CHURCH IN

There has been much discussion during the year of certain proposals on behalf of Christian unity set forth and recommended by a large number of Canadian clergy in a circular letter expressing their view that Christian Unity would be promoted by such practical steps as the two following:

“(a) By the admission of ministers of other Churches, under certain restrictions and by rightful authority, to the pulpits of our Churches.

“(b) By permission being given to members of other Communion—being members in good standing in their Communion—on occasion and with consent of the Ordinary, to communicate in our Churches.”

Such radical propositions were very seriously criticised by most of the Bishops in their addresses to the dioceses, and in many of the diocesan synods and other Church bodies resolutions condemning them were adopted. In April the Bishops within the ecclesiastical province of Canada set forth a joint declaration in regard to that pronouncement, making for themselves the following declaration:

“1. While earnestly desirous of promoting the visible unity of the Church they deeply regret the publication of the circular in question, believing that such unauthorized action will inevitably hinder rather than promote the cause of real and lasting unity.

“2. While recognizing the right of every Churchman to hold and maintain his own views on things non-essential, they regard the specific proposals of the circular as calculated to subvert the Church's historic order, to imperil her internal harmony, and to retard the progress of her legitimate work.

"3. They admonish the brethren, clergy and laity alike, not to act precipitately, and to beware, lest in their anxiety to come closer to their brethren in non-Episcopal communions, they weaken the bonds by which the Church of England in Canada is united to the Anglican communion throughout the world."

This was signed by the Archbishop of Ottawa, the Bishops of Quebec, Algoma, Ontario, Nova Scotia, Huron, Fredericton, Niagara, and Bishop Reeve.

The Synod of the ecclesiastical Province of Canada, sitting in Montreal in October, took the important action of dividing the province into two parts, creating the Province of Ontario, which hereafter embraces the dioceses of Ottawa, Algoma, Huron, Niagara, Ontario, and Toronto, while there remain in Canada the four dioceses of Fredericton, Montreal, Nova Scotia, and Quebec, to which it is hoped the diocese of Newfoundland may be added. This action was foreshadowed at the General Synod of 1911 but required the ratification of the Provincial Synod itself. Other action taken by the Synod included an expression of sympathy with the Church in Wales at this time of its trial and the passage of various formal resolutions and expressions of opinion. A resolution expressing disapproval of war was defeated in the lower house by a large majority. An attempt made in the same house to evolve a plan to secure greater coöperation with other Christian bodies looking toward unity was negatived by the House of Bishops. During the Synod the consecration of the Bishop of Mid-Japan, the Rt. Rev. James Heber Hamilton, was accomplished.

Organization of the Provincial Synod of Ontario was formally effected during the session of this Provincial Synod, the Archbishop of Ontario presiding.

The religious census of Canada taken during the year shows that out of a total population of 7,206,643 inhabitants, 2,833,000 are Roman Catholics, 1,115,000 are Presbyterians, 1,079,000 are Methodists, and members of the Church of England numbered 1,043,000. The largest increase since the previous census is shown by Roman Catholics, the second by the Church of England, then Presbyterians and Methodists. In the province of Quebec, out of a total population of about 2,000,000, 1,724,000 are Roman Catholics.

CHRISTIAN UNITY FOUNDATION, THE

The Christian Unity Foundation has, during the past year, continued its work of conference and research. It has had conferences with the Disciples of Christ, Baptists, Congregationalists, and Methodists. It has issued studies on the Disciples of Christ, the Methodists, and on the Early Christian Ministry as revealed in the New Testament. The study on the Disciples of Christ is now in its 60th thousand, having been purchased in large numbers by the Disciples. It has issued several leaflets explanatory of the objects of the Foundation. Its literature may be had on application to the Secretary, the Rev. Dr. Lowndes, 143 East 37th St., New York, to whom also applications for membership may be addressed.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

On January 10th the Church Periodical Club celebrated the completion of twenty-five years of service with a public meeting in New York City. Beginning with one paper sent to one missionary, the work has grown to be a world-wide enterprise. Last year 18,000 current magazines, 50,000 books, and large numbers of tracts, Christmas cards, pictures, and games were sent into almost every diocese and missionary district, reaching directly 1,200 of the clergy, 3,000 lay people, and many Church and public institutions. Books have been supplied to the clergy in the flood districts, to Boone University library, and to the diocesan library in the district of Kyoto. A native Liberian has been helped to the necessary books for his senior year in the medical school, and a number of school and parish libraries have been begun or enlarged. Some of the side issues have been the placing of a piano and several smaller musical instruments, altar furnishings and typewriter. The Church Periodical Club has applications for many articles outside the realm of literature, and can find use for anything that is offered.

By means of a special appeal over $6,000 has been added to the endowment fund. It is hoped that in time the interest on this fund will cover the necessary expenses of the central office. Plans have been made for a series of conferences and other meetings during the General Convention. These will be attended by delegates from thirty or more dioceses, most of them as guests of the Church Periodical Club in the diocese of New York.

It is a cause for thankfulness that more widespread interest is being aroused and a deeper realization of the work the Church Periodical Club is doing, and may more fully do, for the enlargement of the Kingdom.

CONNECTICUT, DIOCESE OF

In view of the declination of the position of Bishop Suffragan by the Rev. J. Chauncey Linsley, who was elected in June 1912, the question arose again in the annual convention of June 1913, of the relative desirability of dividing the diocese or of electing a Suffragan Bishop, and it was again determined, as a year earlier, to elect a Suffragan. Accordingly on the eleventh ballot the Rev. Samuel S. Drury, L.H.D., rector of S. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., was elected, but he declined the election.

The Rev. J. Chauncey Linsley, who had been elected a year earlier, was again placed in nomination but declined, as also did the Rev. G. T. Linsley of Hartford, and the Rev. M. G. Thompson of Greenwich. Other nominations, which were permitted to stand, were the Rev. William E. Gardner, New York; Rev. Theodore Sedgwick, New York; Rev. E. Campion Acheson, Middletown; Rev. Louis B. Howell, Norwalk; Rev. John F. Plumb, New Milford; Rev. G. W. Davenport, Danbury; Rev. Dr. Samuel S. Drury, Concord, N. H. Although not regularly nominated, the Rev. S. R. Colladay and the Rev. E. B. Sniffen also received votes.

The clergy balloted first, and with eighty votes necessary to a choice, Mr. Gardner received thirty-five and Dr. Drury, twenty-one. Dr. Drury passed his leading opponent on the fourth ballot and continued in the lead until the eleventh ballot, when he was elected. On this ballot 111 votes were cast, of which two-thirds were necessary for a choice, and Dr. Drury received the exact number, 74. The vote was then made unanimous and was immediately confirmed by the laity, 53 out of 55 voting to accept the election, which was afterward made unanimous.

No further action was taken after the declination of Dr. Drury.

DALLAS, DIOCESE OF

Two attempts were made during the year by election to obtain a Bishop Coadjutor for the diocese, and both were made ineffectual by the declination of those elected. The first was the Very Rev. Carroll M. Davis, Dean of Christ Church Cathedral, St. Louis, who was elected in October 1912, and the second was the Rev. Charles Fiske, D.D., rector of the Church of S. Michael and All Angels, Baltimore, elected at the annual convention in May 1913.

A special convention for the purpose met October 8, 1912, and chose Dean Davis, as stated. At the annual convention, meeting in May the first choice of the clergy was the Bishop of Salina, who was presented for the concurrence of the laity on three succeeding ballots but failed to receive that concurrence. Dr. Fiske was then, on the second day, elected. The choice of the clergy was between the Rev. W. T. Capers and Dr. Fiske, the latter being elected on the second ballot and unanimously confirmed by the lay vote, the clergy also making their vote unanimous. Dr. Fiske immediately telegraphed his declination. It was then determined to adjourn further proceedings until September; but before that month was reached the Bishop withdrew his request for the election of a Coadjutor.

DOANE, WILLIAM CROSWELL, D.D., LL.D.,

Late Bishop of Albany, born in Boston, March 2, 1832, died in New York City, May 17, 1913. He had served longer in the episcopate than any of his brethren except the Presiding Bishop, and was among the foremost of the members of the House of Bishops. He was the son of George Washington Doane, Bishop of New Jersey, and his boyhood was spent in Burlington, N. J. He was educated at Burlington College and at Trinity College, Hartford, taking a master's degree at each. In later years he was honored with the degree of D.D. from Columbia, Trinity, Oxford, and Dublin; with that of S.T.D. from Hobart; with that of LL.D. from Union, the University of Cambridge, Hobart, and the University of Pennsylvania; and with that of D.C.L. from Union.

Ordained deacon in 1853 and priest in 1856, he served as rector of St. Mary's Church, Burlington, until 1860; as rector of St. John's, Hartford, Conn., 1860-64; and of St. Peter's, Albany, 1867-69. During his Burlington ministry he was also adjunct professor of English literature at Burlington College, and while in Hartford was lecturer on the same subject at Trinity. On February 2, 1869, he was consecrated Bishop of the newly created diocese of Albany. His work within that diocese culminated in the erection of the Cathedral of All Saints', the cornerstone for which was laid June 3, 1884. He had from the start been a warm advocate of the Cathedral idea, and the establishment of the Cathedral, together with the adjoining institutions, S. Agnes' School, the Child's Hospital, S. Margaret's Home, and the Sisterhood of the Holy Child were among the chief accomplishments of his episcopate. He was a regent of the University of the State of New York from 1892 until his death, and was Chancellor of the same until 1909. Bishop Doane was a frequent writer of short articles and of verse, and author of several published volumes.

EASTERN CHURCHES

In November 1912, two of the most distinguished of the Oriental Bishops died, being Antonius, Metropolitan of St. Petersburg, Russia, and Joachim III., Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople. The Metropolitan of Moseow, Archbishop Vladimir, was afterward appointed to succeed the former of these.

Much sympathy with the Balkan Churches was expressed throughout the Christian world in their contest against their ancient enemy, Turkey, and a letter was sent by resolution of the Missionary Council of the Department of New England, through the Bishop Coadjutor of New Hampshire, to the ecclesiastical heads of the Churches in Greece, Bulgaria, Servia, and Montenegro. Grateful answers were received on behalf of these Churches.

Increasing anxiety was felt throughout the year by reason of the second passage of the Welsh Disestablishment act in the House of Commons. It was subsequently rejected by the House of Lords, and the real contest on final passage therefore arises next year, when the upper house will no longer have veto power. An appeal to the country against the pending bill was issued in May by the Archbishops and Bishops, with the notable exceptions of the Bishops of Hereford, Oxford, and Lincoln. A bill enacted by Parliament provides for the creation of three new dioceses.

The only change in the English diocesan episcopate during the year was the death of Dr. Legge, Bishop of Lichfield, and the translation to that see of the Rt. Rev. J. A. Kempthorne, D.D., Bishop Suffragan of Hull in the archdiocese of York. The death and burial of the Rev. Arthur H. Stanton of St. Alban's, Holborn, London, was an event that received wide recognition.

FAITH AND ORDER, WORLD CONFERENCE ON

The interest in the Conference continues to increase at home and abroad. The Commission has carefully borne in mind the world-wide aspect of the proposed Conference, and has sought with impartial anxiety to enlist the co-operation of both Catholic and Protestant bodies. This aim has been duly communicated to all who have been approached with regard to the Conference, and a general understanding exists that the actual work of arranging for the World Conference shall not be directly undertaken until as adequate a representation as possible shall have been secured from all the chief groups of Christians—Catholic as well as Protestant. Up to August 19, 1913, the Secretary of the Joint Commission had received notice of the appointment of the following thirty commissions or committees, given in the order in which the Secretary received the lists of members, the country being the United States unless otherwise stated:

The Protestant Episcopal Church; the National Council of Congregational Churches; the Disciples of Christ; the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.; the Executive Committee of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, Western or American Section; The Methodist Episcopal Church, South; the Southern Baptist Convention; the Moravian Church in America, Northern Province; the Reformed Church in the United States; the Methodist Episcopal Church; the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in the U. S. A.; the Presbyterian Church in the United States; the United Presbyterian Church of North America; the Northern Baptist Convention; the Free Baptist Conference; the Reformed Church in America; the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America; the Church of England in Canada; the Seventh Day Baptist General Conference; the Chinese Church, Chung Hua Sheng Kung Hui; the Church of England; the Moravian Church in America, Southern Province; the Moravian Church in Great Britain and Ireland; the Methodist Church in Canada; the Church of England in Argentina; the Episcopal Church in Scotland; the Baptist Union of Great Britain and Ireland; the Nippon Sei Kokwai (the Holy Catholic Church of Japan); the Church of England in Australia and Tasmania; the Church of England in India.

The invitation sent last year to the Old Catholic Churches in Europe was followed up by a request to Bishop Hodor of the Polish National Church and the Rev. A. A. Müller, a priest in Old Catholic orders and now in charge of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Chicago, to present the matter personally to the Old Catholic Congress held in September.

Invitations to appoint coöperating commissions have been sent to the leading Baptist, Congregational, Disciples, Lutheran, Methodist, and Presbyterian Communion in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Ireland, Anstralia, and New Zealand. The Commission hopes soon to be able to take up actively the work of issuing invitations in other countries, and the way for this has been already somewhat prepared by the wide distribution of our literature.

On May 8, 1913, at the suggestion of the Commission, an informal conference was held in New York, in which representatives of all the commissions at present appointed in the United States were invited to take part. This meeting was of great importance and marked a distinct step forward in the progress of the World Conference movement. It was the first meeting, on any considerable scale, of representatives of the different commissions for mutual counsel and for joint consideration of the problems involved in the work of preparing for the World Conference. Nothing could have been more encouraging than the spirit and temper of the gathering. There was deep realization of the difficulties with which this undertaking is confronted, but the spirit of the meeting was one of courage and hope, and of faith in the present power of God the Holy Spirit. The Conference was fortunate in having present at its meeting the Rev. Tissington Tatlow, M.A., a member of the committee of the Church of England, who happened to be in this country, and the Very Rev. Alexander Hotovitzky, D.D., Dean of the Cathedral in New York, representing Archbishop Platon of the Holy Orthodox Church of Russia. There were present representatives of the following Communion: Congregational; Disciples of Christ; Presbyterian in the U. S. A.; Executive Committee of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, Western or American Section; Moravian Church of America, Northern Province; Reformed Church in the United States; Methodist Episcopal Church; Evangelical Lutheran Church in the United States; Presbyterian Church in the U. S.; the United Presbyterian Church of North America; the Northern Baptist Convention; Reformed Church in America; Seventh Day Baptist; Protestant Episcopal Church; Holy Orthodox Church of Russia; and Church of England.

After careful discussion, it was decided that it would be well to send a deputation to confer with the non-Anglican Communion in England, Scotland, and Ireland, and from nominations made by the committee appointed at the meeting, the Commission requested the following divines to act as that deputation: The Rev. Newman Smyth, D.D., the Rev. John Henry Jowett, D.D., Bishop John W. Hamilton, D.D., the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., and the Rev. Peter Ainslie, D.D.; and the Rev. Tissington Tatlow, M.A., was asked to act with the deputation for conference and counsel. The Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., and General Ralph E. Prime were asked to present the matter to the Council of the Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That an Advisory committee be constituted, composed of one representative of each of the commissions already appointed to be chosen by each of said commissions, to cooperate with the Executive committee of the Episcopal Commission in promoting any preparation preliminary to the work of convening the World Conference.

"That the commissions which may be appointed by other Communion be invited to appoint representatives on the Advisory committee."

Members of this Advisory committee are now being appointed as provided by the above resolution. At the conclusion of the meeting the following resolutions were adopted as expressive of the results reached in conference and not theretofore embodied in formal resolutions:

"1. That the true ideal of the World Conference is of a great meeting participated in by men of all Christian Churches within the scope of the call, at which there shall be consideration not only of points of difference and agreement between Christians, but of the values of the various approximations of belief characteristic of the several Churches.

"2. That while organic unity is the ideal which all Christians should have in their thoughts and prayers, yet the business of the commissions is not to foree any particular scheme of unity, but to promote the holding of such a conference as is above described.

"3. That in order that the World Conference may have a maximum value, the questions there to be considered shall be formulated in advance by committees of competent men representative of various schools of thought, these committees to be appointed at as early a date as is consistent with assurance that their truly representative character cannot be successfully challenged.

"4. That among the subjects for joint consideration by the Executive committee of the Episcopal Commission and the General committee appointed at this meeting are the following:

First. What questions must be considered before it can be decided how the World Conference shall be convened, what its membership shall be, and when and where it shall assemble.

Second. How such prior questions can best be considered and answered.

Third. How the matters for consideration by the World Conference shall be ascertained and referred to the committees which are to study them, and how and when those committees shall be appointed."

A special report of this interesting and inspiring meeting has been published.

Small conferences of informal character have been encouraged, and many have been held both with those who are called Protestants and with those who are called Catholics. The purpose of such conferences is to prepare the way for a more intelligent and successful handling of the World Conference, and to develop the spirit of mutual good feeling upon which the success of that Conference must depend. A large number of public addresses also have been made by members of the Commission upon the subject of the World Conference, many of them at gatherings of representative ministers of other Communions.

An earnest effort has been made to give the project world-wide publicity. Letters have been written and leaflets sent all over the world, and important items of news have been sent to all the newspapers which showed a willingness to print them. A number of pamphlets have been printed setting forth the objects and methods of the Conference. Copies of these may be had free by applying to Robert H. Gardiner, Gardiner, Maine.

The consecration of the Suffragan Bishop of the diocese, the Rev. Harry Sherman Longley, D.D., took place at S. Mark's Church, Evanston, Ill., of which Dr. Longley was rector, on October 23, 1912. The Presiding Bishop of the Church was assisted as co-consecrators by the Bishops of Iowa and Chicago; the preacher was the Bishop of Central New York, the Rt. Rev. Charles Tyler Olmsted, D.D., LL.D., D.C.L.; the presenting Bishops were the Bishop of Erie and the Suffragan Bishop of Chicago; the precentor for the Litany was the Bishop of Nebraska; the attending presbyters were the Rev. Albert Longley, rector of Trinity Church, Bayonne, N. J., and the Rev. A. R. B. Hegeman, rector of Trinity Church, Binghamton, N. Y., from which parish Dr. Longley was called to St. Mark's, Evanston. There were ten Bishops, eighteen visiting priests, sixty-nine Chicago priests, two deacons, and sixteen theological students in the two processions that entered the church for the function.

JAGGAR, THOMAS A., D.D.,

Sometime Bishop of Southern Ohio, born in New York City, June 2, 1839, died at Cannes, France, on December 13, 1912.

He was ordained deacon in 1860 and priest in 1863. His diaconate was spent in Church work at Bergen Point, N. J., after which he was successively rector of the Anthon Memorial Church (All Souls), New York; S. John's, Yonkers, N. Y.; and Holy Trinity, Philadelphia. In 1875 he was consecrated Bishop of Southern Ohio, continuing as such nominally until 1904, though his active episcopate within the diocese ceased with the consecration of Dr. Boyd Vincent as Coadjutor in 1889. After that date he was incapacitated by illness for a number of years, but recovering somewhat, he served for several years as special preacher at S. Paul's Church, Boston. Since 1908 he had charge of the American churches in Europe.

Bishop Jaggar was accounted a great preacher and was author of the volume of Bohlen Lectures for 1900. He had been designated to preach the sermon at the forthcoming General Convention.

KANSAS, DIOCESE OF

Notice was given in January by the Presiding Bishop that a majority of the Bishops had not given their consent to the consecration of the Rev. H. Percy Silver to be Bishop Coadjutor of Kansas within the canonical period of three months, and that the election had therefore lapsed. The diocesan convention, holding its session in May, adopted resolutions expressing their regret at this failure on the part of the Bishops to confirm the election, and declaring the Bishop-elect in their judgment worthy of the honor to which they had elected him, and reaffirming the fact that he had been elected. There was published in August a letter from Mr. Silver to the Bishop of Kansas withdrawing his name altogether from consideration in connection with the office of Bishop Coadjutor.

KANSAS CITY, DIOCESE OF

At the diocesan convention in May it was determined that the former name of West Missouri be restored to the diocese in place of the name of Kansas City.

MASSACHUSETTS, DIOCESE OF

On October 7, 1912, occurred the final step in the transition of S. Paul's Church in Boston to be the Cathedral of the diocese. The induction of the Rev. Dr. E. S. Rousmaniere as Dean of the Cathedral took place on the previous Sunday morning. The inauguration of the Cathedral brought together more than 200 of the clergy with four Bishops and a great number of lay people. Official proclamation of S. Paul's as the Cathedral church of the diocese was made by Charles G. Saunders, chancellor of the diocese. The document set forth how Mary Sophia Walker of Waltham and her sister, Harriet Sarah Walker, had made provision by will for the establishment of a Cathedral. The Bishop of the diocese gave an address and celebrated Holy Communion.

At the diocesan convention in April request was made by the Bishop for the election of a Suffragan Bishop, and the convention determined to grant the request. A ballot was taken with the result that the Ven. Archdeacon SAMUEL G. BABCOCK was chosen on the first ballot by the following vote:

| | CLERICAL | LAY |
|---------------------------------|----------|-----|
| Total number of votes cast..... | 171 | 99 |
| Necessary to a choice..... | 86 | 50 |
| Rev. S. G. Babcock..... | 103 | 66 |
| Rev. Herman Page | 62 | 32 |
| Scattering | 6 | |
| Divided | | 1 |

Prior to the election the salary of the Suffragan Bishop had been placed at $5,000, with an allowance of $1,000 for traveling expenses, and it was reported that subscriptions amounting to $106,050 had been made for the creation of a fund for the purpose. Mr. Babcock was consecrated to the episcopate on June 17, 1913.

MICHIGAN CITY, DIOCESE OF

Trinity Cathedral, Michigan City, was consecrated on Thursday, November 14th, by the Bishop of the diocese, the day following the diocesan council. The service was a joyful one, Dean Trowbridge acting as celebrant, while the Bishop of Fond du Lac was the preacher. In the evening a retreat was given to the clergy by the Bishop of Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, DIOCESE OF

The seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Church in the City of Milwaukee was celebrated on January 10th, the exact anniversary of the day upon which the first service in the city was held in 1836. A visiting clergyman, the Rev. Henry Gregory, had conducted that first service, and the result had been the foundation a few months later of the senior parish in the city, S. Paul's. The celebration was therefore under the direction of the present rector of S. Paul's Church, and included a week of anniversary events.

|---|--------------|
| The cost of administration has been..... | $ 57,965.62 |
| The cost of making the work known and securing offerings has been | 106,587.53 |

The gross receipts of the Society have amounted to $1,885,995.19. The percentage of Central Expenses upon the gross receipts has been for administration three and one-tenth per cent. (3 1-10%). And for the cost of making the work known and securing offerings five and six-tenths per cent. (5 6-10%). Last year the percentage was three and three-tenths per cent. (3 3-10%) for the first and six and six-tenths per cent. (6 6-10%) for the second.

The apportionment for the year ending September 1st has been paid in full by the following dioceses and missionary districts: Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Western Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, East Carolina, Florida, Kentucky, North Carolina, South Carolina, Montana, Texas, West Texas, North Dakota, South Dakota, Western Colorado, Eastern Oklahoma, New Mexico, North Texas, Salina, Alaska, Arizona, Idaho, Nevada, San Joaquin, Utah, Africa, Hankow, Cuba, Kyoto, and Shanghai.

Among opportunities for expansion in the mission field which it was deemed impossible to grasp owing to the failure of the Church to sustain adequately the work upon its present scale, were propositions to inaugurate a law department in S. John's University, Shanghai; to take over the English work in Central America; and to establish a hospital at Zamboanga, in the Philippine Islands, for work among the Moros.

A notable event in missions was the consecration of the Cathedral of the missionary district of Wulu, China, at Anking on November 10th. Nearly all the clergy of the district were present, together with catechists, teachers, and delegates from the various out-stations. Members of the Woman's Auxiliary and a number of foreign missionaries belonging to the China Inland Mission were also on hand. A vested choir composed of thirty-six Christian boys gave evidence of a careful training. Every seat was filled, the aisles were crowded, and hundreds of people had been shut out. The Bishop of the district was the consecrator and preacher, and was assisted by several of the Chinese and foreign clergy. The Cathedral site had been purchased and the chapel which is now superseded by the Cathedral erected during the ministry at Anking of the Rev. C. S. Lindstrom, 1898-1905. The work thus planted was developed largely by the Rev. E. L. Woodward, M.D., and the Rev. Edmund J. Lee.

The Anking Cathedral is located in the very heart of the city, on a small hill, making the tower visible from all points. Its close neighbors, the City Temple and the Temple of Medicine, had been condemned and dismantled, cleared of idols, and made use of for government purposes, only a week prior to the formal opening of the Cathedral. This and the coming of Bishop Huntington to reside in Anking must be regarded as a happy augury, especially when viewed in the light of the eagerness with which the citizens of Anking thronged these services.

The Cathedral is easily the largest, the best constructed, and the most completely furnished church in the Yang-tse Valley. Though its capacity is limited to 1,000, it could be made to hold several hundred more. It is built in Gothic style, cruciform in shape, with fourteen smoothly chiseled stone pillars and was erected at a cost not exceeding $10,000, though it could hardly have been erected for $50,000 in the United States.

Another notable incident in connection with missionary work in China was the official request from the Chinese government transmitted to the Board of Missions, as to other missionary boards in the United States, from the State Department at Washington, in which the Chinese government asked for the prayers of the Christian world for its national assembly then about to meet. The remarkable document, which is unprecedented in history for many centuries, takes the form of a message from the Chinese government to the provincial authorities and to leaders of Christian Churches, as follows:

“Prayer is requested for the National Assembly now in session; for the new government; for the President who is to be elected; for the constitution of the Republic that the Government may be recognized by the Powers; that peace may reign within our country; that strong and virtuous men may be elected to office; and that the Government may be established upon a strong foundation. Upon receipt of this telegram you are requested to notify all churches in your province that April twenty-seventh has been set aside as a day of prayer for the nation. Let all take part.”

At the May meeting of the Board of Missions it was determined to ask General Convention for further amendments to the missionary canon in such wise as to provide that the General Convention shall take direct responsibility for the missionary work, and also providing new and uniform conditions under which work in American dioceses and missionary districts should be carried on with more direct supervision from missionary officials. A proposal from the Archbishop of the West Indies, presented to the last General Convention, with regard to the possible cession to the American Church of a Missionary District in Central America was considered and it was declared by resolution that:

“The board realizes that responsibility for the spiritual welfare of the people of Central America rests with the Church in America rather than with the Church of England, and believes that within a few years the American Church will gladly accept ecclesiastical jurisdiction in Central America and endeavor to aid its peoples in the effort they are making to develop their national life and liberty.

“In view, however, of the present difficult financial situation, the board feels that it cannot recommend that the American Church assume this responsibility immediately.

“It does recommend that the General Convention request the board to continue its consideration of the subject, send a deputation to study the situation in Central America, and report to the General Convention in 1916.”

NEBRASKA, DIOCESE OF

A great loss was inflicted upon the city of Omaha by a tornado that passed through a portion of it on the afternoon of Easter Day. No Church property was destroyed, but several of the missions in the city were seriously embarrassed by the destitution wrought among their people, while 200 homeless persons were cared for in the Cathedral parish house. It became necessary to invite the assistance of the Church at large in restoring the loss to the Church as to the people in that city.

RT. REV. THEODORE I. REESE, D.D.
Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Ohio

REESE, THEODORE IRVING,

Bishop Coadjutor of Ohio, was born in New York City, March 10, 1873, the son of the late Rev. George B. Reese of Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., and a great-nephew of Washington Irving. He was educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and was graduated at Columbia University with the degree of A. B. in 1894 and at the Cambridge Theological School with the degree of B. D. in 1897, in which latter year he was ordained deacon by Bishop Capers, acting for the Bishop of New York, and in 1898 was advanced to the priesthood by Bishop Potter. His first work was at St. Michael's Church, Milton, Mass., which he founded and of which he had charge during his student years at Cambridge. After his ordination he became rector of St. Michael's, which position he held until 1907, when he accepted a call to Trinity Church, Columbus, Ohio, and continued in the rectorship of that parish until his consecration to the episcopate. In 1910 he was appointed by Governor Harlan a member of the State Board of Arbitration, of which he was chairman at the time of his consecration. He was also at that time president of the Funding Committee and of the Sunday School Commission of the diocese, a member of its Social Service Commission, and was a deputy to the General Convention of 1910. He received the honorary degree of D. D. from Kenyon College at its commencement in 1913. Mr. Reese was married on June 22, 1899, to Miss Louise Comins of Boston. He was elected Bishop Coadjutor of Ohio at a special convention held in December, 1912, and was consecrated in his own parish church at Columbus on the Feast of the Annunciation, March 25, 1913, by the Bishop of Southern Ohio, assisted by Bishops Leonard of Ohio, Lawrence of Massachusetts, Perry of Rhode Island, Williams of Michigan, and Bishop Van Buren. The Bishop-elect was presented by the Rt. Rev. Charles D. Williams, D. D., Bishop of Michigan, and the Rt. Rev. James De Wolf Perry, D. D., Bishop of Rhode Island; the Rev. Charles Edward Hutchinson of East Orange, N. J., and the Rev. Samuel Tyler of Cincinnati, being the attending presbyters, the latter taking the place of the Rev. John M. McGann of Chicago, detained by reason of the floods, which were then rising in the city. The Bishop of Indianapolis was also in attendance and participated in the laying on of hands, as did all the other Bishops named.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION, GENERAL BOARD OF

During the year of 1913, the General Board of Religious Education has promoted the organization of Diocesan Boards of Education, thereby bringing about in many dioceses canonical recognition of the importance of education. It has formulated and published a Standard Curriculum for the help of the schools of the Church. This has been formally adopted by many Diocesan Commissions and Boards. A Correspondence School for Teacher Training with a competent faculty and a constantly increasing roll of students, has been organized. The Board has recommended the third Sunday in October as a Day of Intercession for Religious Education and has provided material for the proper observance of that day. Regular meetings of the Board were held in Sewanee, Tenn., and in St. Louis, Mo. The General Secretary has traveled in twenty-eight dioceses and addressed many Conferences, Institutes, and parochial gatherings.

For the General Convention, the Board made plans to join with other educational organizations in promoting legislation to increase the educational efficiency of the Church. A program of Conferences and Mass Meetings covering a week, was conducted and an exhibit of methods and material for Religious Education was displayed.

SOCIAL SERVICE, JOINT COMMISSION ON

On October 1, 1912, the Joint Commission on Social Service, appointed at the General Convention in Cincinnati in 1910, after two years of preliminary organization, opened an office in the Church Missions House in New York City. Here a considerable correspondence has been developed, and a special social service reference index, containing already several thousand items on the various phases of social reform and including a considerable pamphlet literature, has been organized. The Field Secretary of the Commission, the Rev. F. M. Crouch, has during the past year traveled upwards of twenty thousand miles on the Commission's business, and has filled approximately one hundred out-of-town engagements.

The effort of the Commission has been centered upon the education and organization of the Church's constituency for effective action with reference to social problems. Largely through its efforts there are at present seventy-four diocesan Social Service Commissions and a growing number of parish organizations devoted to community service. Five of the Missionary Departments have also organized officially or informally for Social Service within their jurisdictions.

As a means of education of the future leaders of the Church, the Commission is recommending the introduction of courses of social instruction and the provision for elementary social service in the Sunday school and in the theological seminary. The Commission has also issued for educational purposes within the past two years several pamphlets and leaflets, including A Social Service Program for the Parish, Social Service for Diocesan Commissions, A Model Canon for Diocesan Social Service Commissions, and Social Service and the Episcopal Church. Of these various publications nearly twenty thousand copies have already been distributed, requests for literature having been received not only from the clergy and laity of the Church throughout the country but from various secular agencies of social reform in this country as well as in Canada, England, and even Turkey. The triennial report to the General Convention has also been printed for general circulation.

For the purpose of furthering its educational propaganda, the Commission arranged in connection with the General Convention of 1913, a social service week, including a series of four conferences on various phases of the Church's relation to social welfare; a mass meeting in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine; visits to social institutions and agencies in New York City and vicinity; special sermons on Social Service in the local churches by visiting clergy, mostly members of the various diocesan Social Service Commissions; and an exhibit showing the work of the Joint Commission, diocesan Commissions, parish agencies, and one or two other cooperating organizations. The proceedings of this Social Service week have been issued in pamphlet form. Copies of these proceedings and of the other literature of the Commission may be obtained on application to the Field Secretary, the Rev. F. M. Crouch, 281 Fourth Avenue, New York City.

STINESS, JOHN HENRY, LL.D.

Born in Providence, R. I., August 9, 1840; died in the same city, September 6, 1913. He had been a member of every General Convention since 1871 except those of 1886 and 1889, and was among the most influential members of that body. Judge Stiness was of English and Colonial ancestry, his grandfather, Samuel Stiness, having served in the Revolution and also in the War of 1812. The Judge was educated at University Grammar School, Providence, and at Brown University, leaving the latter in 1861 a few months before his intended graduation to accept a commission as Second Lieutenant in the Second Regiment of New York Artillery, which was then forming for service in the Civil War. He remained in active service until January 1863, when he was discharged on account of illness, and began the study of law. He was admitted to the bar in Rhode Island in 1865. Although he had left Brown University before receiving his degree he was honored by the University with the degree of A.M. in 1876, and with that of LL.D. in 1893. Entering into public life Mr. Stiness served as a member of Congress in 1874-75, and was active as a Republican and in his legal profession. He was appointed to the Supreme bench of the state when only 34 years of age, finally becoming Chief Justice, as which he served until 1904 when he retired from active service. In the Church Judge Stiness was one of the most influential laymen both in his own diocese and beyond. He served at different times on the vestry of the Church of the Redeemer, and then of St. Stephen's Church, Providence, was Chancellor of the Cathedral corporation, member for many years of the Standing Committee, and Judge of the Ecclesiastical Court in the First District. He had been President of the Rhode Island Historical Society, and was author of several historical works as well as of a little book, The Bible: a Revelation.

WEEKS, WILLIAM FARRAR,

Bishop Coadjutor of Vermont, was born in St. Albans, Vt., February 22, 1859. He was graduated from St. Albans High School in 1877, from Williams College in 1881, and from the General Theological Seminary in 1884. He was made deacon October 2, 1884, in St. Luke's Church, St. Albans; and was ordained priest on the Feast of St. Michael and All Angels, 1885, in St. Matthew's Church, Enosburg Falls. His whole ministerial life has been spent in the diocese of Vermont. He was in charge of the Enosburg parishes from 1884 until 1889. He was rector of St. Thomas', Brandon, from 1889 until 1904, when he became rector of Trinity Church, Shelburne. He has been a member of the Standing Committee of the diocese for many years and president of the same since 1905. He represented the diocese for several terms in the General Convention. He was elected Bishop Coadjutor of Vermont at a special convention on November 13, 1912, and was consecrated on January 29, 1913, at St. Paul's Church, Burlington. The Bishop of Vermont with the Bishop of Rhode Island and the Bishop Coadjutor of Albany were consecrating Bishops, while the sermon was preached by the Bishop Coadjutor of New Hampshire and the candidate was presented by the Bishop of Western Massachusetts and the Coadjutor of New Hampshire. Bishop Burch, Suffragan of New York, also participated, as did the others named, in the laying on of hands. He received the degree of D.D. from Williams College in June 1913, and the degree of S.T.D. has been voted by the General Theological Seminary.

WEST TEXAS, DIOCESE OF

A special committee appointed at the Bishop's request to consider the administrative needs of the diocese by reason of the advancing years of the Bishop and of the large growth of the population and of the Church within the diocese, reported to the annual convention in May their view that a Coadjutor be chosen. The suggestion was adopted and arrangements made for holding a special council to elect a Bishop Coadjutor on November 18, 1913.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION.

Established October 25, 1880, by the General Convention. It aims to raise a fund of $1,000,000 by annual offerings from all congregations (as recommended by the General Convention) and by individual gifts. Portions of the principal are loaned to build churches and rectories. Out of the accumulated interest donations are made to complete new churches. The officers of the corporation are: President, Rt. Rev. Edwin S. Lines, D.D.; Vice-President, Rt. Rev. C. Kinloch Nelson, D.D.; Second Vice-President and Secretary, General James Grant Wilson; Treasurer, Mr. George Gordon King; Corresponding Secretary, Rev. J. Newton Perkins; Assistant Treasurer, Mr. E. Walter Roberts. The office of the Commission is at the Church Missions House, 281 Fourth Avenue, New York.

GENERAL CLERGY RELIEF FUND.

The Official General Society of the Church for the Pension and Relief of clergy, widows, and orphans.

The General Convention recommends an annual offering from each church; that a percentage of the Communion alms be given to this fund; that it be remembered in legacies, bequests, and wills; and given the Royalty on the Hymnals.

The Society systematically secures and pays out Pension and Relief to about 600 persons and requires for this purpose about $30,000 per quarter.

The obligation is that of the whole Church, the Society is only the agent and can do only so much as the Church gives it to do with. About 67 dioceses and Missionary Jurisdictions, merged with it, depend upon the General Clergy Relief Fund alone for Pension and Relief. Churchmen should contribute annually as a matter of course, because the stability and efficiency of the ministry depend upon the just care of the sick priest in poverty and neglect.

All churches and clergy should be on the record of offerings. Remember the fund by legacies and bequests in wills.

Trustees: Rt. Rev. David H. Greer, D.D., President; Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, D.D., Vice-President; Mr. Elihu Chauncey, Secretary; Rev. Reese F. Alsop, D.D., Rev. William T. Manning, D.D., Mr. Henry Lewis Morris, Mr. Roland S. Morris.

Central Office (to which all communications should be addressed): The Church House, 12th and Walnut Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. Rev. Alfred J. P. McClure, Treasurer and Financial Agent.

Diocesan Secretaries of the Church League of the Baptized have been appointed on nomination of the President, by the Bishops of twenty-five dioceses.

Chaplain, the Rt. Rev. James Henry Darlington, D.D., LL.D., Ph.D., Bishop of Harrisburg, Harrisburg, Pa. Honorary President, Mrs. David H. Greer, 7 Gramercy Park, New York. Founder and President, Miss Louise Winthrop Koucs, Elizabeth, N. MAP SHOWING THE PROVINCES, DIOCESES, AND MISSIONARY DISTRICTS OF THE AMERICAN CHURCH

Diocesan and Parochial Information.

Diocesan officers of national organizations, such as Woman's Auxilliary, Girls' Friendly Society, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, etc., and also officers of Church Clubs and of Sunday School organizations, are printed in the department of Official and General Institutions, beginning page 106.

The statistics of each Diocese and Missionary Jurisdiction have been compiled in nearly every case, from the official statistics given in their respective journals, and the sheets have been revised by the Bishops or Secretaries of the Dioceses, to the latest moment possible. The numbers following the name of a Parish indicate the reported number of Communicants therein. The Clergy will confer a favor by forwarding corrections to be made in the next issue of THE LIVING CHURCH ANNUAL promptly to the office of THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN Co., 484 Milwaukee Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Names of clergymen recorded are confined to those officially reported in diocesan journals or otherwise certified to the publishers as in good standing in some American diocese.

Titles of Institutions enclosed in quotation marks are those of legal corporations.

ARRANGEMENT OF PAROCHIAL LISTS

Each clergyman's name appears ONCE under the head either of "Parishes, Missions and Clergy," or "Non-Parochial Clergy," in the Diocese with which he is canonically connected. Where one of his cures is also his P. O. address, his name will there be found. If he has no cure at his P. O. address, his name will appear at his cure, with his P. O. in parentheses. Lesser points ministered to by the same clergyman will have references in italic to his main cure. Thus:

"Athens, S. Timothy's, r. New Decatur."

This reference in italics indicates that the rector of New Decatur is in charge of S. Timothy's, Athens. His name will be found by looking at "New Decatur." This obviates the delays, expense, and annoyance of sending mail matter for the rector of New Decatur to his lesser cure at Athens.

Where the P. O. is not the same as the principal cure, it is designated thus:

Montevallo, S. Andrew's, T. J. Beard, D.D. (Birmingham).

This shows that the missionary at Montevallo resides at Birmingham, but has no charge in the latter city.

This method has the advantage of showing at a glance the correct P. O. address of each of the clergy in any given Diocese, and also shows which is the principal, and which the lesser, charge of any one clergyman.

r.=rector; m.=minister, missionary; loc. ten.=locum tenens; rec. emer.=rector emeritus; rec. hon.=rector honorarius; off.=officiating; cur.=curate. Names in italics (found only in certain Missionary Districts, as Alaska) are those of lay workers.

A Classified Index

THE ORGANIZATIONS AND INSTITUTIONS OF THE CHURCH WITHIN THE UNITED STATES AND ITS POSSESSIONS.

The greatly increased number of corporate activities of the Church in recent years seems to make necessary this attempt to coördinate those in particular lines, whether Official, General, or Local. This Classified Index has therefore been prepared, in which the names of organizations for specific purposes wheresoever they may be described in the pages of this book, are now brought together under appropriate headings. Organizations and institutions of the Foreign Missionary Districts are not here included.

Of.=Official—by authority of General Convention, or of some body created by General Convention.

Gen.=General institutions, not limited to single dioceses, but not official.
Abbreviations designating Religious orders, which have the management of institutions so designated, are to be found specifically by reference to the pages cited.

Abbreviations denoting the Diocese under which the institution may be located. As the Dioceses are arranged alphabetically, it is deemed unnecessary to refer to these by page also. Institutions that are recorded both under the head of "Religious Orders" and of specific dioceses are here chronicled with the former and not the latter reference.

More than 1,200 Parishes and Missions have adopted the Duplex Envelope and the Weekly Offering, with marked success, not only for Parochial needs but also for Diocesan and General Missions. We suggest a local Missionary Committee, and an every-member canvass in person, of each congregation. For particulars write "The Secretary," 281 Fourth Avenue, New York, N. Y.

Communion Wines

THAT GIVE PERFECT SATISFACTION

Recommended by the Right Reverend Bishop of the Milwaukee Diocese, used by the Bishops at a number of Cathedrals, and the Reverend Clergy all over the United States. An Altar Wine most agreeable, delicate, and delicious.

Whenever a Red Sweet Communion Wine is preferred, Pommer's Golden Gate B. Q. Mataro has proven most satisfactory.

Because of purity and fine quality P. G. G. B. Q. MALVOISIE and B. Q. MATARO natural matured GRAPE WINES are highly recommended for convalescents by noted Physicists of Milwaukee and elsewhere.

LOOK

At Me I am different, absolutely different—from any of my relatives. I am different in temperament, operation, principle, construction, action and results.

MY strictly hygienic solid copper tub is as smooth as glass inside, with no mechanical obstructions of any kind; therefore I Can't wear or tear your clothes.

I literally handle the hot suds and force it into, around and through the clothes at great speed while they are constantly changing position in the air tight tub. I am very simple to operate as there is no complicated machinery, no exposed gears, no heavy cylinder to be lifted out to be cleaned after each washing. A dipper or two of clear water and my tub is cleaned instantly. My reversible wringer may be operated at the same time as my tub or independently.

At the trifling cost for electricity of about 4 cents for the average family wash I will eliminate all drudgery, do your work better, quicker and cheaper than any other washer, and pay for myself in a very short time.
